

THE WEATHER: Moderate S.E. winds. Fair this afternoon, becoming cloudy this evening.

CHINA

MAIL

Established 1845

No. 37324

TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 1959.

Price 20 Cents

Comment Of The Day

DUTY CALLS

MAN today talks glibly about flying through space, but he has not yet accustomed himself to the pace of the fastest of existing forms of travel. The sudden change in climates experienced in an air flight, and the fatigue which follows it are two well-known symptoms. Yet duty requires people like Princes, Prime Ministers, businessmen, and Archbishops to travel vast distances often overnight. They are deposited at their various destinations for a few days and then whisked home again, albeit confused, having shaken several hundred hands, drunk innumerable toasts, half-digested a mass of information, seen thousand wonders of the world. And they assimilate perhaps a tenth of it all.

It is little wonder that Dr Geoffrey Fisher, who left Hongkong yesterday said of his experience in Calcutta: "Asking my impression is like asking a man who has been at the bottom of a Rugby scrum for ten minutes with everybody milling about on top of him." He went on to give a few of the most vivid impressions of his short visit to the Colony. As he said at the Cricket Club reception, some were grim and severe and some, glorious. The most hurtful thing he found about our refugees was that in complete antithesis to Christian people, they were without purpose or hope. On the positive side he singled out the Bishop's "astonishing leadership" and noted that Hongkong was producing men and women of saintly and powerful character. He added, kindly, that he had been encouraged by what he had seen.

PERHAPS it is only to be expected that a very few impressions stick even with the most observant visitor. The Archbishop recalled that during a trip to Africa, when laying the foundation stone of a church commemorating African Christians killed by the Mau Mau he noticed attending the service, a large number of people standing behind the main congregation.

Dr Fisher asked who they were. He was told: "Mau Mau." He continued: "I looked at them and they looked at me. Finally I did what I do everywhere. I smiled and waved my hand. And then, this great multitude of Mau Mau, the declared enemy of English rule, burst into song and waved back at me. I said: Here is the Anglican Church doing its work."

DR Fisher may have left Hongkong with a host of undigested impressions. The many faces he saw must by now be a vague blur in his memory. Perhaps there was no really vivid incident in Hongkong that he will be able to recall subsequently. But the value of his four-day stay is not thereby minimised.

The church in Hongkong will long remember the visit of their Metropolitan and will incidentally be grateful that modern travel enables the Archbishop to visit them, even if flying flung across the world at such incredible speeds and dropped for a few torrid days in a strange city, leaves him feeling like the Rugby player at the bottom of a scrum.

ANOTHER POSITION FOR SECRETARY DULLES TO QUIT?

Geneva
Trip Too
Tiring,
They Say

New York, April 6. A CBS news correspondent, quoting sources "believed to be reliable," said tonight that Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, has decided to resign.

The correspondent, Dan Schorr, quoted these sources as saying that President Eisenhower is in agreement with Dulles' decision and that Dulles had recommended that Under-Secretary of State, Christian Herter be appointed as his successor.

A State Department spokesman said the Department has "no information to this effect." The spokesman had no other comment.

Some other position is under consideration for Dulles, according to the report, Schorr said.

On the program "This World Tonight," he said his information came from sources in Europe "with no confirmation from any source in Washington."

A Feeling

"There is a growing feeling, according to the report," Schorr said, "that the announcement should be made at least a week before the East-West Foreign Ministers conference opens in Geneva."

"There is the implicit conclusion that Dulles will not be able to go to Geneva, and this conclusion has apparently been reached," Schorr said.

"Our European report says that, although Dulles has responded well to treatment and to his rest in Florida, it is considered that the Geneva meeting would be too grueling a trial for him."

"One decision still remains to be reached — Dulles' position after his resignation as Secretary of State... under consideration, it is believed, is a role as personal foreign affairs adviser to President Eisenhower." —U.P.I.

BOAC EXPECTED TO GET U.S. APPROVAL FOR PACIFIC FLIGHT

Washington, April 6. President Eisenhower is expected to sign by the end of April the authorisation for British Overseas Air Corporation to use the San Francisco to Hongkong air route, via Honolulu, Wake Island and Tokyo, air officials said today.

This would give BOAC a round-the-world route.

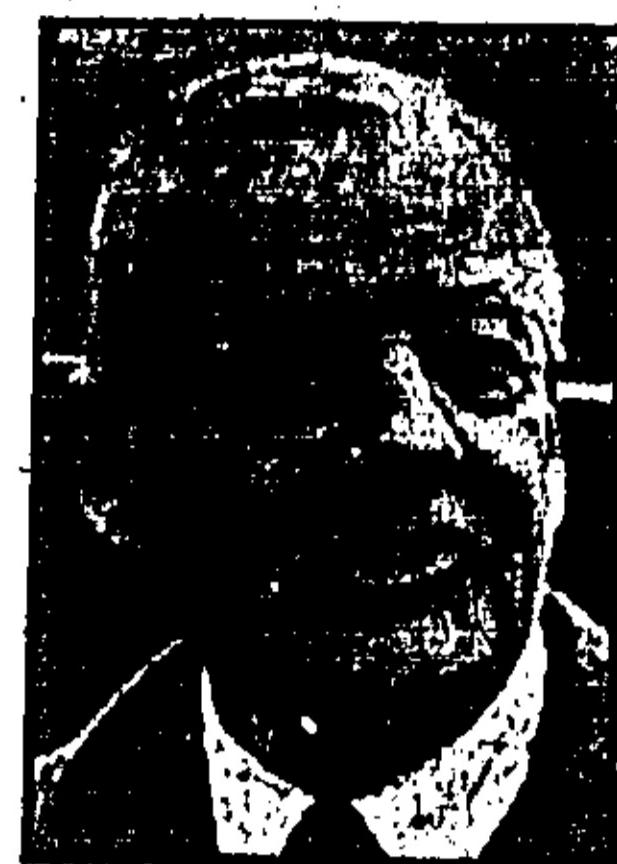

They understand that Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) is eager to act favourably on the British request with as little delay as possible, but it has to follow the usual CAB procedure.

Officials said by April 13 the CAB examiner will have received the BOAC and Northwest Airlines final reports for and against the granting of this route.

KE'S SIGNATURE

They said the CAB examiner should not take more than two or three days to draw up his report, after which seven days is allowed for any rebuttals. The examiner's report then goes to the Board.

They said Northwest Airlines can then ask for an oral hearing before the Board and if this is

JOHN FOSTER DULLES
The end of the road?

Civil Servants In Britain Purged

London, April 6. A total of 162 British civil servants had faced charges as security risks since the government began a purge 10 years ago, it was stated here today.

Mr Stanley Mayne, general secretary of the Institution of Professional Civil Servants, said that in the past 12 months, for the first time since the purge started, not one civil servant was removed from his job as a "risk."

Special Leave

One civil servant sent on special leave pending a decision on a security charge in that time had since been reinstated.

Mr Mayne also said in his report that "the operation of the purge over the last 10 years has always been more notable for its stupidity than for its results."

"It is most gratifying to note that the diminution in numbers of purge cases in the last few years has at last come to a year with a nil return."

A special report circulated to unions representing Britain's 650,000 civil servants, disclosed that since investigations began, 24 civil servants had been dismissed, 63 transferred to non-secret work, 23 had resigned and 32 were reinstated. —China Mail Special.

—China Mail Special.

Burglars Break Into A-Research Centre

London, April 6. Burglars have broken into a construction company office at the atomic research centre of Winfrith Heath, Dorset, it was stated tonight.

Slipping by patrols which constantly circle the area, the thieves blew open a safe and got away with £130 for their effort.

They left behind a pair of old socks containing £200 which "workmen had placed" in the safe for safekeeping.

Before blowing open the safe, the thief took the trouble of encasing it with straw bales to muffle the noise.

A new atomic reactor is being built at the site. —France Presse.

BURL IVES WINS AN OSCAR

Hollywood, April 6. Folk singer Burl Ives and English star Wendy Hiller tonight were awarded Oscars as the best supporting performers of 1958 at the 31st Annual Academy Award show.

Burl Ives played the disappointed father in "The Big Country."

Wendy Hiller played the role of the hotel keeper in "Separate Tables."

Among the early arrivals at the occasion were Jane Wyman, Louis Jourdan, June Allyson, Young Marigold Cowher champion, former heavyweight champion Joe Louis, Fess Parker, Martha Hyer, another Oscar candidate; Joan Collins, Jayne Mansfield and husband Mickey Hargitay, Sophie Loren, and ageless Maurice Chevalier.

Boos And Cheers

A tremendous roar went up when Tom Curtis and Janet Leigh waved to the spectators mainly composed of teenagers who banked both sides of the theatre on Hollywood Boulevard in temporary bleachers.

Mingled boos and cheers greeted the arrival of Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor, principal figures in Hollywood's most publicised marital triangle. Debbie Reynolds, Fisher's ex-wife, did not appear.

They drove up to the theatre in a long black sedan. The widow Todd was wearing a black gown with a fur wrap. Both smiled happily. They were the only couple booted by the crowd. —U.P.I.

Special Leave

One civil servant sent on special leave pending a decision on a security charge in that time had since been reinstated.

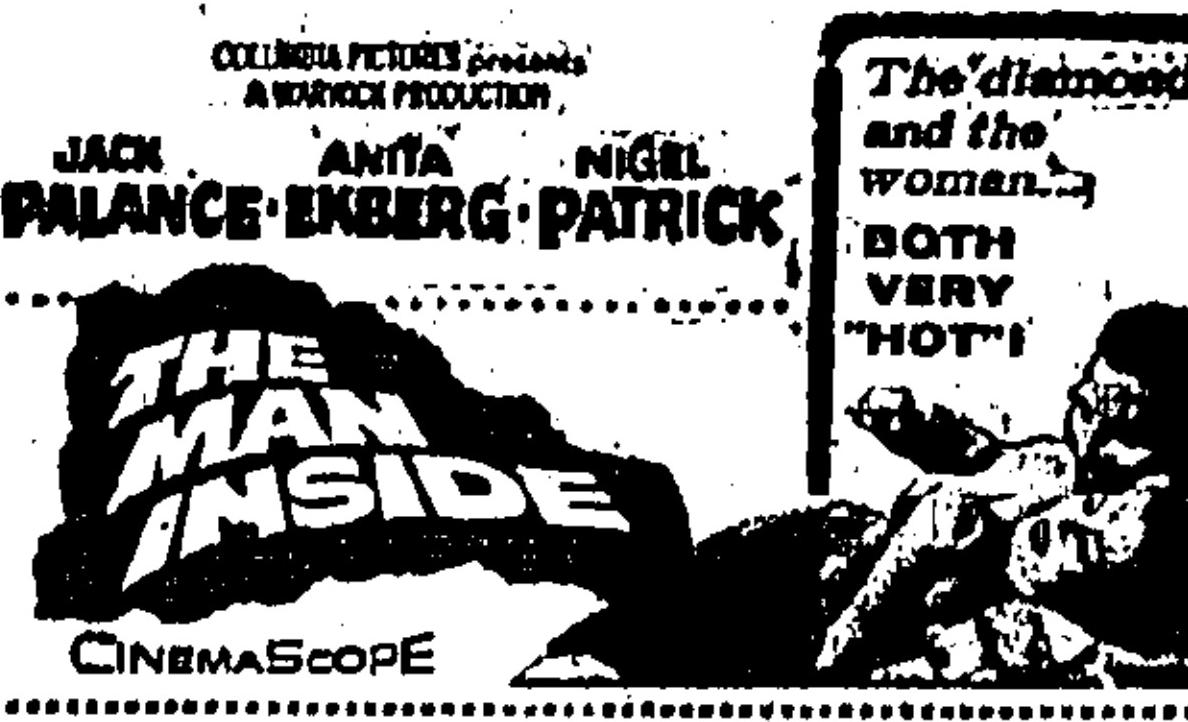

Mr Mayne also said in his report that "the operation of the purge over the last 10 years has always been more notable for its stupidity than for its results."

"It is most gratifying to note that the diminution in numbers of purge cases in the last few years has at last come to a year with a nil return."

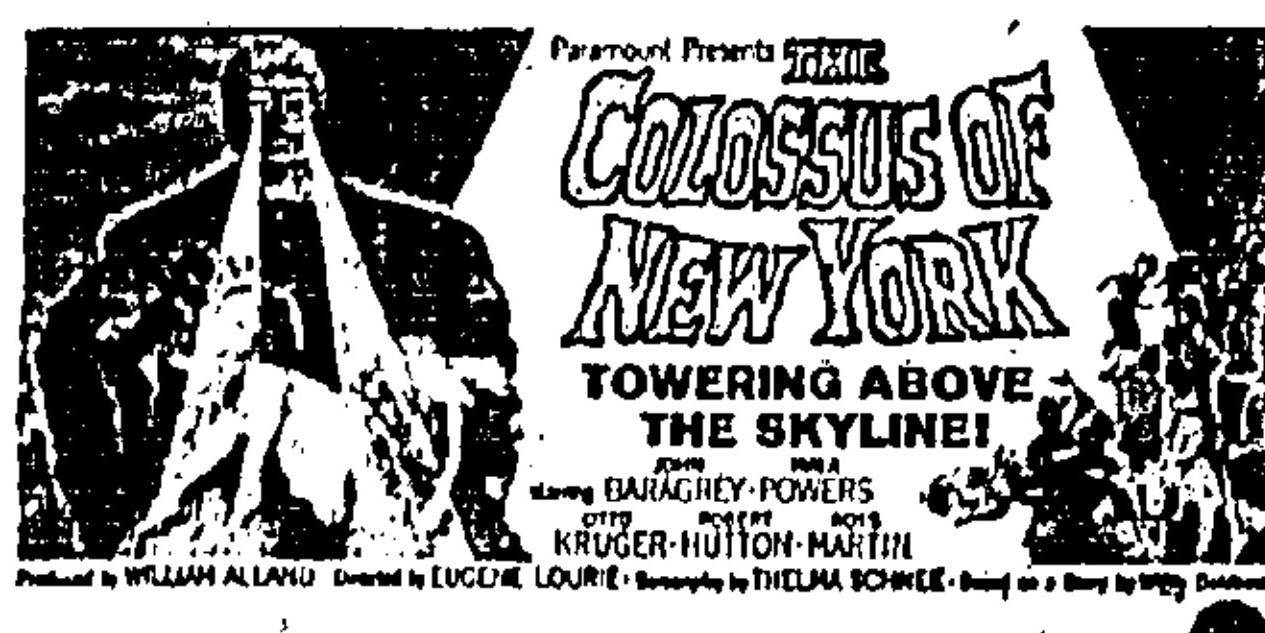

A special report circulated to unions representing Britain's 650,000 civil servants, disclosed that since investigations began, 24 civil servants had been dismissed, 63 transferred to non-secret work, 23 had resigned and 32 were reinstated. —China Mail Special.

KING'S PRINCESS

FINAL TO-DAY

COMMENCING TO-MORROW

HOOVER GALA

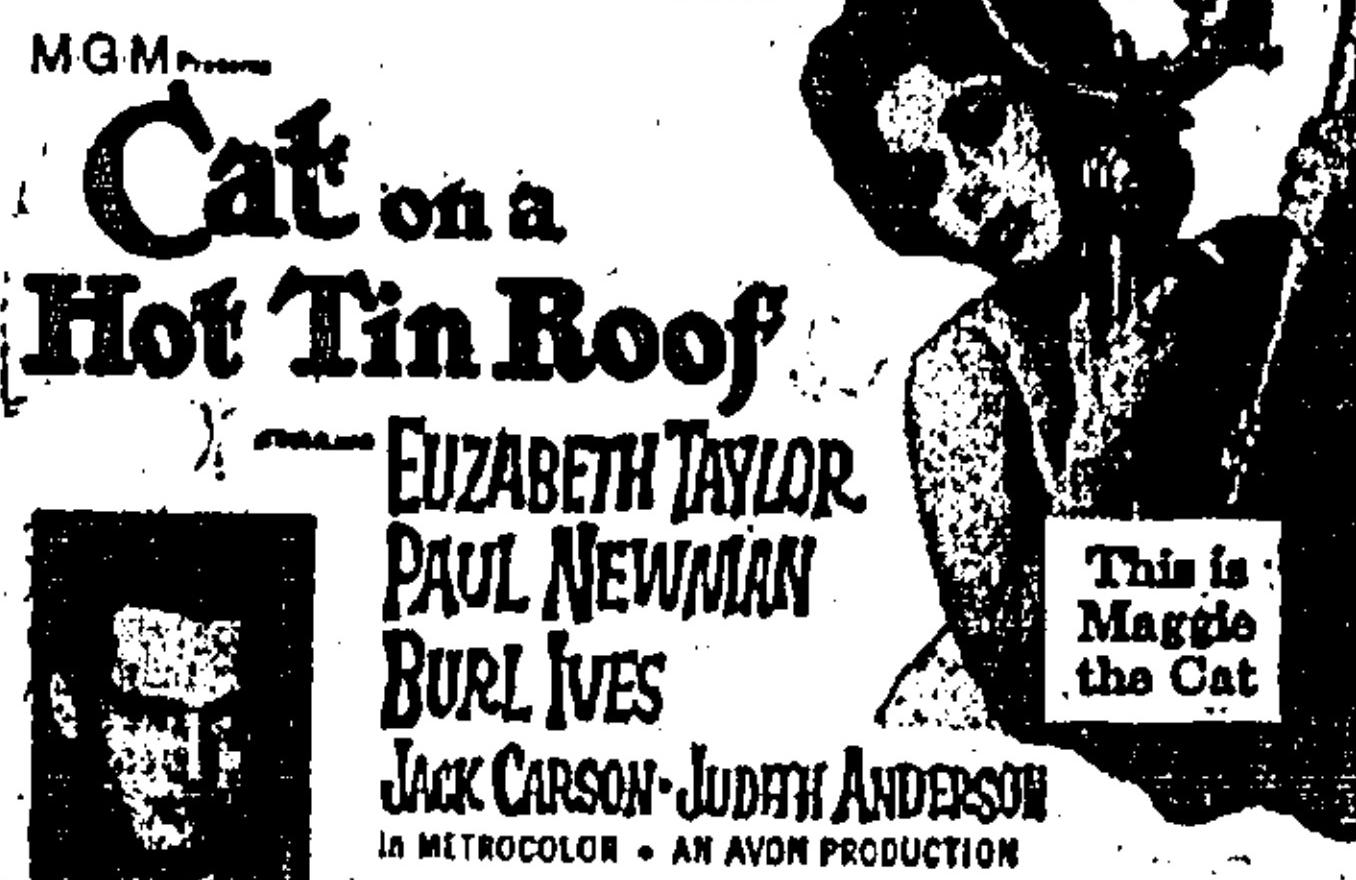

TEL 72371 TEL 52070

★ GRAND OPENING TO-DAY ★

AT 2.30, 5.20, 7.30 & 9.40 P.M.

ONE OF THE TEN BEST OF 1958

6 Nominations for Academy Awards!

Tennessee Williams' Play On The Screen! She kissed and clawed her way back to the one she loved!AIR - CONDITIONED STAR METROPOLE

2ND TRIUMPHANT WEEK

NOW SHOWING THE 13th DAY!
3 SHOWS TO-DAY—Please note special times:
AT 2.30, 6.00 & 9.00 P.M.

THE MOST HONORED PICTURE EVER!

1. Voted by "Film Daily" as ONE of the TEN BEST of 1958!!
2. "SUPERIOR" — Rating by "MOTION PICTURE HERALD"!!!
3. 2 NOMINATIONS FOR ACADEMY AWARDS!!!!

SPECIAL ADMISSION: Logo $4.70, Back Stall $3.50
Middle Stall $2.40 & Front Stall $1.70.ORIENTAL MAJESTIC
AIR CONDITIONEDSHOWING SIMULTANEOUSLY TO-DAY —
Due to Length of Film, Please Note Change of Times!
3 SHOWS DAILY

2.30, 5.30 & 9.15 P.M. || 2.30, 6.00 & 9.15 P.M.

GLADYS AYLWARD

SAID

*I Wanted A Book That Would Reach
The People'*

By JOANNE BLAIR
HAVING tea with Miss Gladys Aylward is more rewarding and more fun than a long awaited holiday. The alive, bright brown eyes across the tea table speak of past adventures which, while quite commonplace to her, make the rest of us seem very dull by comparison. She laughs and jokes easily and is eager to discuss any subject imaginable. But over all lies a deep, inescapable sincerity.

Dressed in a becoming dark green crepe cheongsam with a jade brooch at her throat, Miss Aylward spoke frankly of the book and subsequent film that made her famous.

"Alan Burgess," she says of the author, "presented a very accurate account of my life."

Determined

"I was determined," she continued, "that the book would not be just another religious story, told by a few missionaries, but one that would reach the people. And he did just that."

When we got around to discussing the film she admitted that she hadn't yet seen it and didn't know whether or not she would. I remarked on the rather delightful little song she taught the children while crossing the mountains.

"What song?" she demanded in her appealingly straightforward manner.

"You know," I replied. "Nick-nack paddy-wack, give-the-dice-a-bone."

She gave no sign of recognition so someone in the party hummed the tune.

No Such Thing

"Good Heavens," said Miss Aylward. "I taught them no such thing! What we did sing were the choruses—which they already knew anyway."

We got on to another topic.

Preparing now for an extensive lecture tour in the United States, she will return to Formosa in the winter and resume her work as an independent missionary.

As a national of Nationalist China, Miss Aylward continues

STATE

— FINAL TO-DAY —
At 2.30, 5.15, 7.20 & 9.30 P.M.

THE LAW PAYS HIM TO KILL...
AND TURNS
BILL BABY
A MONKEY
PATTI

GUY MARSH
THE MAD MAN

To-morrow —
ONE DAY ONLY
By Popular Request
"THE BRIDGE ON THE RIVER KWAI"

POP — Getting shirtless

Mr. Sansbury lives so close to history that less than 100 yards from her bedroom is the College gateway which dates back to 1300.

Four hundred yards away is the Cathedral of Canterbury. Mrs. Sansbury is a friend of

BRITAIN'S FUTURE
IN ASIA IS JUST BEGINNING

By DAVID T. K. WONG

AUSTIN Coates, author and former Hongkong District Officer, thinks Britain's future in Asia is only just beginning.

This is because "we are beginning on a new basis of equality" and that is why he feels it worthwhile to live in Asia.

The 37-year-old son of the late Eric Coates, the famous composer of light music, said this when he flew in for a four-day stay here from Sarawak where he has been working for the last two years as the adviser to the Sarawak Government on Chinese Affairs.

(The Chinese now form the largest racial group in Sarawak).

He is at present on leave and will go on a tour of Asian cities, including Hongkong, when he leaves Singapore.

He has spent the last 15 years of his life in Asia. He started in India towards the end of World War II and then moved on to Burma, Hongkong and Sarawak.

Fiction Now

The author of the travel books "Invitation to an Eastern Feast" and "Personal and Oriental" has recently switched over to fiction.

His first novel, "The Road," which deals with a European couple in Chinese environment, will be published in New York in May and London in June.

Meanwhile, he has already started on a second novel about Canton in the 1790's. "I find writing novels much more satisfactory than writing travel books," he said. "At least you don't have to worry about illustrations."

AUSTIN COATES
No IllustrationsMRS SANSBURY
Surrounded by historyHistory Near Her Bedroom
In Canterbury

ANOTHER busy woman is Mrs Elthelreda Sansbury, wife of the Warden of St Augustine's College Canterbury (Central College of the Anglican Communion) who recently accompanied the Archbishop's party to Hong Kong.

Her itinerary, unfortunately, permitted her only one day in the Colony which was distressing, she said, from the point of view of shopping. An avid collector of souvenirs, she was particularly anxious to buy some china.

In 1932 Mrs Sansbury and her husband stopped at Hongkong on their way to Japan, but again, just for a day. Even so, she was struck by the tremendous growth of the Colony in building and reclaimed land.

Mrs. Sansbury's son Christopher did his National Service in Hongkong. He is now studying at Westcott House and is soon to be ordained.

Bricked Up

Mrs. Sansbury recently showed a friend from Hongkong a newly rediscovered chapel in the Cathedral undercroft on the walls of which were found the vivid colours of an extremely well-preserved fresco dating back to the 14th century.

Having been bricked up for hundreds of years, the frescoes of air and dampness had not suffered the colouring, and the fresco looked as if it had been newly painted.

Another highlight of the Cathedral is a decorated window dating back to 1336.

Mrs. Sansbury explained that the detailed scenes that were projected in stained glass windows of those days were designed to present certain biblical stories in a way that worshippers and pilgrims unable to read could understand. Other windows tell of the miracles of St. Thomas.

She also said that the Cathedral was all the armour of the Black

Prince.

RITZ CINEMA

★ SHOWING TO-DAY ★

AT 2.30, 5.30, 7.30 & 9.30 P.M.

The Best Organization presents

NORMAN WISDOM IN THE SQUARE PEG

"BRIAN BLIGH AND EDWARD CHAPMAN"

Original Story by Jack Berlin. Produced by Hugh Marlowe. Directed by Alan Price. Music by Alan Price.

NEXT CHANGE: JAMES STEWART IN

"VERTIGO"

For Reservations Phone 68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

68305

SHOPLIFTERS SHAKE U.S. CLAIMS, SAYS MIKOYAN JR

Berlin, April 6.

Serge Mikoyan, son of the Soviet Deputy Premier, Anastas Mikoyan, said today he saw nothing on his American tour that changed his conceptions.

He said he learned many new things that widened his knowledge but nothing that changed his basic beliefs about the United States.

Africans Form New Political Group

Johannesburg, April 6.

African delegates from all parts of South Africa decided today to form a new non-white political organisation — the Pan-Africanist Congress. Their three-day conference that ended today was called by an African group which broke with the African National Congress last November.

The aims of the new organisation are:

- To unite the African people on a basis of African nationalism;

- To fight for the overthrow of white domination and the maintenance of the right of self-determination for Africans;

- To strive for the establishment of an African democratic society;

- To promote the educational, cultural and economic advancement of the African people;

- To promote the concept of a federation of Southern Africa and Pan-Africanism.

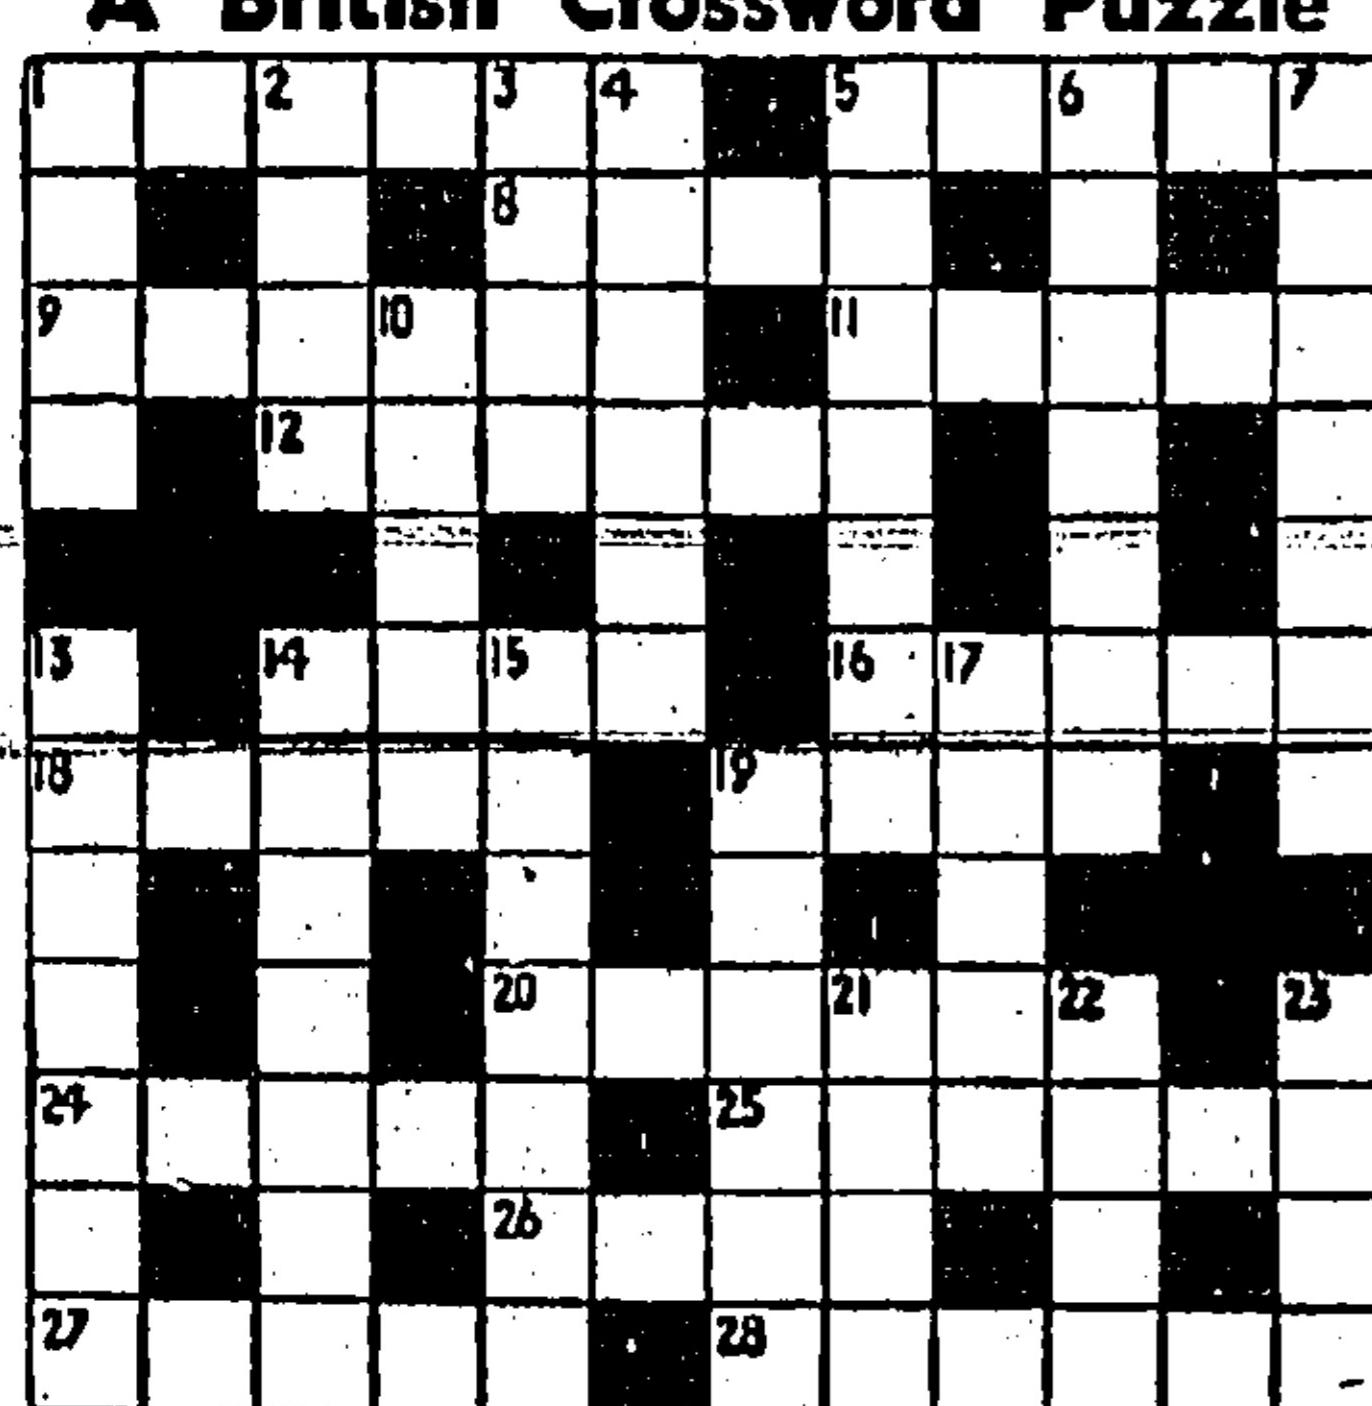

Anti-Nobody

Mr Robert Sobukwe, a lecturer in African languages at Witwatersrand University, was unanimously elected president of the new organisation.

"We aim at a government of Africans, by Africans and for Africans — with everybody who owes his only loyalty to Africa and who is prepared to accept the democratic rule of the African majority being regarded as African."

He said no minority rights could be guaranteed because "we think in terms of individual, not groups." — Reuter.

A British Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS

- Take-it-easy room (6).
- Bring on oneself (5).
- French vivacity (4).
- Changed course (6).
- One may not like being given these (8).
- Leave the wilderness (6).
- It might call for a dredger (4).
- Could be a sound lead, of course (6).
- Tired or battered? (4, 3).
- Lightweight sort of cat (5).
- Linear units (4).
- Put on some clothing (6).
- Liver, etc. (6).
- What the hell did to the pancakes? (6).
- Right to hold properly in line (4).
- Little as between twelve and twenty (5).
- The mother kind? (6).

DOWN

- Nothing in tends, much in life (4).
- Accustomed to put us first (4).
- Horses to racing men (4).
- First born (6).
- How a VIP may drive (2, 5).
- Target for the shy! (7).
- Termed (7).
- Sensate (8).
- Tired or battered? (4, 3).
- Pinch a bit (7).
- In lawful fashion (7).
- Gets on one's blind legs? (5).
- Make adipose? (6).
- Island, international, in part (4).
- Biblical character for whom one can find a use (4).
- This is, so to speak, the limit (4).
- Spokes, 10 Holes, 12 Actors, 14 Monitor, 17 Noah, 19 Relapses, 20 Achim, 22 Scen, 23 Nonstop, 27 Meager, 29 Abets, 30 Spring, 31 La-test, 32 Asset (rev.), Down: 1 Assam, 2 Shorn, 3 Sweet, 5 Aero, 6 Hypnot, 7 Soothie, 8 Scoring, 11 Ornate, 13 Tremors, 15 Once, 16 Ill met, 18 Aala, 20 Arsal, 21 Cement, 24 Sepia, 25 Bails, 26 G.I.-got, 28 Amps.

JAPANESE CARS BIG HIT AT U.S. MOTOR SHOW

Olivier Jives At Ingrid's Party

Hollywood, April 6.

Sir Laurence Olivier danced in a hot number with shapelessly actress Anita Louise at a stars' "welcome home" party here yesterday for Ingrid Bergman, who is back in the film colony after a 10-year absence.

As the band played a jazzed-up version of "Turkey in the Straw," Sir Laurence swept into action with a flurry of intricate footwork that brought roars of applause from the guests.

Other dancers left the floor to give him more room and rugged Western star, John Wayne, said: "After seeing this, I am going to buy Fred Astaire's life story and start Olivier in it."

Miss Bergman, who is in Hollywood — for the first time — the Academy Award presentation ceremonies tonight, was greeted at the Beverly Hills Hotel by many old friends, including Cary Grant, Gary Cooper, William Holden, Van Johnson, Danny Kaye, Cliff Johnson, Jennifer Jones, — China Mail Special.

Role Changed

Mosca, April 6.

Edoardo Villa, 45, who for 20 years drove a van carrying internees to the local insane asylum, has been declared insane.

Officials said Villa was talking with friends yesterday in a bar and suddenly began making incoherent speeches. — U.P.I.

CROSSWORD

1. Take-it-easy room (6).

2. Bring on oneself (5).

3. French vivacity (4).

4. Changed course (6).

5. One may not like being given these (8).

6. Leave the wilderness (6).

7. It might call for a dredger (4).

8. Could be a sound lead, of course (6).

9. Tired or battered? (4, 3).

10. Lightweight sort of cat (5).

11. Linear units (4).

12. Put on some clothing (6).

13. Liver, etc. (6).

14. What the hell did to the pancakes? (6).

15. Right to hold properly in line (4).

16. Little as between twelve and twenty (5).

17. The mother kind? (6).

YESTERDAY'S CROSSWORD — Across: 1 Annes, 4 Paths, 8 Spokes, 10 Holes, 12 Actors, 14 Monitor, 17 Noah, 19 Relapses, 20 Achim, 22 Scen, 23 Nonstop, 27 Meager, 29 Abets, 30 Spring, 31 La-test, 32 Asset (rev.), Down: 1 Assam, 2 Shorn, 3 Sweet, 5 Aero, 6 Hypnot, 7 Soothie, 8 Scoring, 11 Ornate, 13 Tremors, 15 Once, 16 Ill met, 18 Aala, 20 Arsal, 21 Cement, 24 Sepia, 25 Bails, 26 G.I.-got, 28 Amps.

Montreal, April 6.

A small Israeli camel recently purchased by Mrs Eleanor Roosevelt for her granddaughter may not turn out to be a "white elephant" after all, despite the United States Agriculture Department's refusal to allow the animal to enter the country.

Montreal, April 6.

A Montreal radio station (CJAD) today offered to buy the camel from Mrs Roosevelt and present the animal to the Granby, Quebec, zoo.

A spokesman for the station said the camel would be an ideal companion for "Bambina," a Siberian counterpart now residing in the Granby zoo.

Mrs Roosevelt, presently in London, was expected in New York later this week and would then consider the radio station's offer.

Under U.S. law, animals cannot be brought into the country if they originate in nations where there is hoof and mouth disease.

New Wife Every Day

A wife for each day of the week is the theme of a musical due to start a 3-week season at Manchester's Palace Theatre on April 14.

Impresario Gerald Palmer is putting £22,000 into the show, "One Girl a Day," which he claims will be able to sell it to Broadway and the West End.

Based on a play that has already been a success for two years in Paris, and with the prior publicity of having had several scenes banned by the British censors, he may very well be right.

Hero of the musical, All Bey, is played by American singer Lester Ferguson, making his first stage appearance in Britain, though he is well-known on TV and radio.

Bey is the man with the brilliant idea of seven wives — one for each day of the week, and all from different countries.

Sunday's wife is Malayan (played by Russian-Japanese girl Shu-Na); Monday's is French (played by Lebanese Sonya Cordeau); Tuesday's is Italian (played by Swiss Katia Even); Wednesday's is Russian (played by Polish Lola Rand); Thursday's is Jamaican (played by Vietnamese Lisa Deel); Friday's is American (played by American Pamela Dennis); and Saturday's Spanish (played by Spanish Anna Ortega).

Story is by Guy Elmes and Gene Kelly's scriptwriter Ray Allen; choreography by Michael Charles. The score includes "Nanette," the tune that caught the Pope's ear when he heard his first skiffle group recently, and six other numbers that Palmer is convinced could be hits.

Above are three of the wives — left to right: Shu-Na (Sunday); Sonya Cordeau (Monday); and Katia Even (Tuesday).

Pilgrims

They refused to say if Miller was cool to the idea because his gorgeous wife might be mobbed again or if he simply took a dim view of film festivals in general. Many movie stars from all over the world make the pilgrimage to Cannes for the festival.

But every year, about 100,000 tourists go through a period of fasting and prayer as they try to prepare an elaborate Cannes splash by a super-cooked star. — U.P.I.

House Saved From Wreckers

Paris, April 6.

A villa built by world-famous Swiss-born French architect Le Corbusier has been reprieved from the demolition squad by order of the French authorities, the Cultural Affairs Ministry announced tonight.

The French Renault "Caravelle" has made the strongest bid for showplace position in the show — since the park opened — and when pretty girls in traditional costumes stroll among skillfully-arranged shrubs, it is in the modernistic style which has brought him world renown.

CHESSMAN REFUSED

Washington, April 6.

The United States Supreme Court refused today to order the release from prison of Carl Chessman, who through a series of appeals and procedural manoeuvres has obtained a stay of execution six times since he was sentenced to death for rape and kidnapping in California in 1948.

Since being sentenced, Chessman has drawn the attention of the public by publishing three books, including the best seller "Cell 2455, Death Chamber."

The Supreme Court gave no reason for its decision. — France Presse.

Marine War Game May Aim At Far East Clash

Camp Pendleton, Calif., April 6.

Marines hit the beaches along southern California shortly after dawn today in what might be a warm-up manoeuvre for possible outbreaks of limited warfare in the Far East.

Some 12,000 sailors and marines will take part in operation Big Land which the official Press releases describe as a war game to "improve the professional skills of navy and marine corps personnel in the conduct of amphibious warfare in the atomic age."

But chiefs and noncoms say the simulated problem assumes that the area about 30 miles north of San Diego, California, is Cambodia and has been captured by the Communists.

The job of the Hawaii-based first marine brigade and the first amphibious task force is to recapture the area.

Vice Adm. John Sylvester, commander of the amphibious force of the U.S. Pacific fleet, denied yesterday that the military exercise had any connection with a possible "brushfire" war in Cambodia, next to American-sponsored Vietnam.

"Exercise 'big land,' as it is named, is a routine training exercise," Sylvester said through his San Diego headquarters.

Another Korea

But informed military sources who could not have their names used in connection with the story, said:

"Cambodia is where the brass expects the Communists will most likely try another Korea, coming down from Vietnam through Cambodia to make an end run attack on Vietnam."

Live ammunition was used by fixed-wing and marine aircraft from El Toro in the supporting fire exercises off San Clemente Island and a rehearsal of the operation last Friday off San Diego Bay.

Equipment to be used in the exercise will end on Friday includes giant helicopters launched from carriers that transport heavily-armed troops to the rear of enemy lines. — U.P.I.

Broken Leg Day

Berlin, April 6.

An 82-year-old West Berliner today stumbled on the fashionable Kurfuerstendamm Avenue and broke his right leg.

A 60-year-old woman saw this and ran to a telephone booth to call for help. On the way she fell and broke her left leg, police said. — Reuter.

1959

ITALIAN FILM FESTIVAL

HOOVER GALA

TEL 72371 TEL 82690

Saturday, April 11. at 9:30 p.m.

Sunday, April 12. at 9:30 p.m.

The Revolt of the Gladiators

Starring Sophia Loren and Vittorio De Sica

Personal Appearance

on stage ROSSANA PODESTA

the Beautiful Star of "Helen of Troy"

MARCO VICARIO DINO RISI FRAMCA BETTOJA

Who directed the film "Scandal in Sorrento" Italy's Top male Star

Lovely Italian Actress

James Mason Not Immune To Shyness

By ROBERT ROBINSON

MR JAMES MASON has the air of a man doing chess problems in his head. Finger to lip, eyes set at infinity, his mien is contemplative. He has a very round head and an aggressive mouth.

"My face," said Mr. Mason, "falls rather naturally into a cowl when it is doing nothing in particular. People may therefore tend to think that I am in a foul temper."

"And sometimes — when for one reason or another I am ill at ease — people think I am annoyed."

"I have, in fact, a rather even disposition."

He moved, as though in his mind's eye, he saw a chess-board.

"I have always been shy about personal publicity. Publicity, I find, is a bit of an embarrassment to the individual concerned, though very necessary to the film he may be working on" (in this case, Ivan Foxwell's "A Touch of Larceny").

PONDERING

"Yes," said Mr. Mason, looking at the opposite wall, "though it bore an illustration of Paulsen's Gambit, 'I am not immune to shyness.'

The slow manner, the pondering eye, was a surprise.

I had not, perhaps, expected him to storm in and smash me over the knuckles with a walking-stick, but I had looked for fierceness of a sort.

"There is something in my character that seems to make that sort of situation plausible in films. But not all actors are happy in the field that yields them their best harvest."

"Look at comedians. Some turn out to be miserable, driven fellows who long to be straight

Friell

"Well now, what are we going to do with all this stuff you got from the kitbags of the boys coming home from abroad?"

HONOLULU BAR & RESTAURANT
DRINKS, FOOD, DANCING.
Price — Service Satisfaction — Guaranteed
FROM 11 A.M. TO 2 A.M.
2, BRISTOL AVENUE 9/ KOWLOON (Formerly Macau Hotel)

PHOTOGRAPHS

by our Staff Photographers

Y's Men's Ladies Night
"Ching Ming" Festival Crowds
Opening of Star Ferry Subway
"Koret California" Fashion Show
Golf Club Prize Presentation at Deep Water Bay
Children's Day Celebration at Juveniles Care Centre
Chinese Catholic Club Annual Social at Peninsula Hotel
Cocktails for Indian Chamber of Commerce Delegation
Tung Wah Hospital Inauguration of New Directors
Po Leung Kuk Farewell to Directors
All Local Sports
Local Presentations
Local Weddings
Etc. Etc.

Available at

SOUTH CHINA MORNING POST, LTD.
Wyndham Street.

NO LOVE FOR JOHNNIE

Once again the life of John Byrne, Labour MP for Marshfield, was in turmoil. Elected chairman of a group of rebel MPs, he was absent from the House at a critical moment, leaving a message on the Socialist Prime Minister, he was making love to Pauline West. Next day his political career seemed at an end. He would rebuild his private life. He would divorce Alice, who had left him, and marry Pauline. She had sent him a message to meet her at Euston. When he arrived on the platform full of foreboding, he saw her luggage being stowed on a train.

"WHAT is it Pauline? What has happened?" "I'm going away," she said, and the flatness of her tone revived his fear.

"Has someone died? You're coming back, aren't you?" "Never," she said fiercely. "I'm never coming back." He could not find words in the blankness which faced him.

She was calmer now and spoke clearly, carefully, articulating every syllable. "I want you to understand, Johnnie. It's not because of yesterday." She rested her hand on his arm and he could feel the nervous grip of her fingers. "I don't forget yesterday, I never shall."

"Then what?" "It's almost too hard to say. It's not that you are too... so much older than I am. Physically, I mean. Of course, I am thinking of the difference in our ages. You're 42 and I'm 20. But believe me, Johnnie, it's not your few grey hairs I worry about. I want to have a home and children, and before all that there must be a husband."

Byrne interrupted. "Before I came here, I thought all this through, he laughed harshly. "I was going to divorce Alice. We were going to marry. We were going to take my flat and move into a home." He paused. Then: "There could be children."

"But you didn't think about them. They've got to be the things you want most. Besides, there's more to it than that. What I really want is life shared and built around something. And, you see, I couldn't share your life."

Finished

"Why? Because I'm up to neglecting his constituency. On the way there by train he decided to attend more regularly. He rehearsed a speech to disarm their criticism as he waited for the meeting to begin."

Charlie Drake banged his gavel on the table. "We'd better make a start," he said.

Ted Collins jumped to his feet in the far back corner. "Point of order Mr Chairman."

"So you are running away?"

"Yes, I am running away."

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encumbrance on my privacy. Some people seem able to do it, I can't. I have also felt incommoded by being type-cast."

"But," said Mr. Mason with his chess-master's brooding smile, "it's ridiculous to come plain too bitterly about being a film star."

"I have so little to complain about that I feel almost guilty." He touched wood.

He said he found some actors "rather ponderous compatriots." And he spoke of The Method as "only one book in the Bible of acting."

He said, "Possibly through mismanagement on my part I have found being film star an encum

WOMANSENSE

A MAN'S LOOK AT WOMEN

FASHIONETTES

In Paris, they're saying: "The loveliest flowers are the roses which have sprouted almost everywhere — on hats, belts, hem, chignons, tops of heads, sleeves." Not to mention gardens.

Pink, knee-length socks, worn with smart flatties, are "in" on the golf course this spring.

In costume jewellery, outsized crescents, stars, circles and

Household Hints

Wool garments will keep their lines indefinitely if hung on sturdy, well-shaped hangers and in sufficient space to hang freely in the closet.

One-third cup butter plus ½ cup milk can be substituted for 1 cup heavy cream.

Use a sharp needle, whether sewing by hand or by machine. A blunt needle may fray the fabric.

YOUR BIRTHDAY ... By STELLA

TUESDAY, APRIL 7

BORN today you are energetic, bursting with initiative, ambition and "get-up-and-go." You are exceptionally versatile and can put your talents to good use. Because of this ability to adapt, you may not reach the heights to which you hope, but you learn the difficult lesson of concentration on a single objective. Put all your energies into one single channel of work.

You have an impulsive, fiery temperament and your intuitions are

JACOBY on BRIDGE

THE expert keeps a lot of tools in his kit. One of the most useful is the so-called safety play. Some of the safety plays are sure things and will work again in any combination of cards. Others will simply give the expert the best chance for his contract.

Today's hand illustrates one of those sure-fire safety plays. You win the first trick with dummy's ace of hearts and lead a low trump.

If East plays the king or jack you have no problem. You simply go up with your ace. If East shows out you also have the wash 'n' wear concept has taken hold in sheer lingerie and sleepwear. Fabric styles include polished cottons, sheer and tiny batistes in textured and plain finishes and feminine cottons that are printed, embroidered and tucked or pleated. Colours are frothy rainbow hues.

Travel wrinkle-free with cotton knits, prominent in sportswear and dresses for the new season. They come in a variety of textures, colours and weights.

When party fashion strides in on 10½ feet, the note is more T-strap than anything else. The shade is vanilla ice, a neutral that goes well with white or other colours.

Brushed leather, resin-finished soles on children's shoes make it springier underfoot and less tiring. The soles wear twice as long, keep feet dry and offer a non-slip bottom in April or any other showers.

When party fashion strides

Inside Show Business

Edited by JOHN LAMBERT and PETER EVANS

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Willy The Speed Demon

—Handi Rescues A Friend In Distress

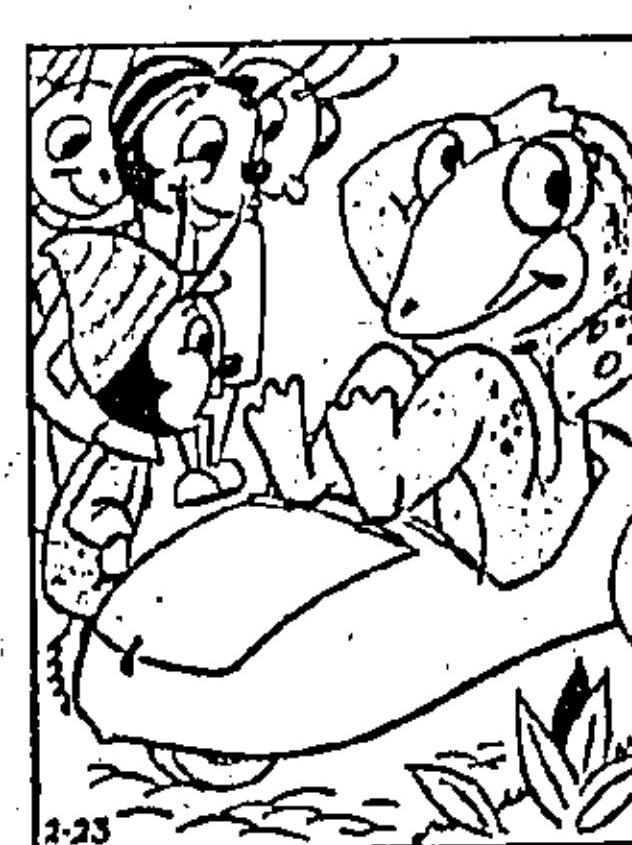

By MAX TRELL

WHERE was a loud chugging noise and the sound of an automobile horn. Then came the blowing of a police whistle and someone shouting: "Where do you think you're going?"

Knarf and Handi, the Shadows with the Turned About Names, could see a crowd collecting at the far end of the street. They promptly ran down the street to see what was going on.

Big Crowd

Meanwhile the shouting and horn-blowing and the clanging grew louder. When Knarf and Handi reached the corner, they found a whole crowd of people gathered around a small automobile. A policeman was in. I'll take you for a spin down the road. Wait until you see how fast I can go in this peanut-bug."

"I'll take you for a spin down the road. Wait until you see how fast I can go in this peanut-bug."

Knarf and Handi took a ride off in the early morning after a late night, when even promotion doesn't seem as important as five more minutes of sleep. It happens to everyone.

One young man we know has solved it with a system.

He sleeps until the last possible moment and this, he says, is exactly 2½ minutes before breakfast is served. Those 2½ minutes are precisely down to the second, what he needs to

"I hope he doesn't get into trouble with that policeman again," Handi said to Knarf. "I'd hate to see poor Willy put in jail."

His laundry and dry cleaning go out regularly, so he always has fresh things ready to wear.

Rupert and the Blunderpus — 26

Rupert is delighted at hearing the explanation of the Blunderpus.

"You said you wanted it caught."

"I'll give you one more chance," he told him.

"The next time I catch you speeding in that peanut-car of yours, I'm going to put you in gaol!"

Then he took Willy and his car (it really was a car made of peanut shells) out of his pocket, put them on the ground and walked away.

Willy was so grateful to Knarf and Handi that he said: "How

ARE YOU FIGHTING?

Answer tomorrow

no problem. You go up with the ace and lead toward dummy's queen.

If East plays the three-spot you must play one of your small trumps. If West wins with the Jack you can pick up the King next time since that will be the only trump out. If West shows out you have held East to one trump.

South did not believe in safety plays. He went right up with the ace of spades at trick two and is still moaning about his terrible luck.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:

South West North East

1 ♠ Pass 3 ♦ Pass

3 NT. Pass 5 NT. Pass

5 ♣ Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead—K

What do you bid?

Answer tomorrow

SIDE GLANCES

By Galbraith

"But if you give me an F in algebra, you are running the risk of giving me a permanent inferiority complex!"

"That's what you told me the last time, Willy," said the policeman. And with that, the policeman picked Willy and the automobile up and put them both in his pocket.

"Let me go! Let me go!" yelled Willy.

The crowd of on-lookers burst into laughter as the policeman walked off with Willy and his automobile.

"I'm going to take you to the Judge," said the policeman. "I'll allow you to speak in my defense."

Knarf and Handi followed the policeman around the corner. At the end of the next block they caught up with them. The crowd was all gone now.

"Please," said Handi to the policeman, "don't take Willy away. We'll see that he behaves himself from now on."

Another Chance

The policeman frowned and grumbled, but in the end he decided to let Willy go.

"I'll give you one more chance," he told him. "The next time I catch you speeding in that peanut-car of yours, I'm going to put you in gaol!"

Then he took Willy and his car (it really was a car made of peanut shells) out of his pocket, put them on the ground and walked away.

Willy was so grateful to Knarf and Handi that he said: "How CERTAINLY any young man who has his foot on the bottom rung of the ladder leading to success knows more than ability's needed if he's to climb up and ahead. His appearance counts, too.

Still there are times, such as when the alarm sounds off in the early morning after a late night, when even promotion doesn't seem as important as five more minutes of sleep. It happens to everyone.

One young man we know has solved it with a system.

He sleeps until the last possible moment and this, he says, is exactly 2½ minutes before breakfast is served. Those 2½ minutes are precisely down to the second, what he needs to

"I hope he doesn't get into trouble with that policeman again," Handi said to Knarf. "I'd hate to see poor Willy put in jail."

His laundry and dry cleaning go out regularly, so he always has fresh things ready to wear.

ARE YOU FIGHTING?

Answer tomorrow

Wardrobe eye-view of the world's most sensitive dressers . . .

(THAT MEANS THE STARS)

Edith Head

freedom of motion, dislikes high colour. Her response to clothes is to talk about other things. She hates shopping."

Her waist

ELIZABETH TAYLOR is very waist-conscious. Her conversation with Edith Head went like this: "You can make the waist a little smaller." "I've already made it a little smaller." "You can make it even smaller." Miss Taylor's waist was 19 inches.

Anna Magnani, a volatile individual, was terrified of being turned into a Hollywood glamour girl. "I am Magnani, I don't want to be made over," she said. But Miss Head noted that beneath Magnani's black slacks and sweater was exquisite lingerie.

Deborah Kerr was a disappointment because she looks better in sweater, skirt and no make-up than with all the trappings. "Glamour adds nothing, but detracts from her."

Only three stars get top rating from the dress doctor for their fashion sense.

Grace Kelly: "My very favourite guinea pig. There is no pretence in her make-up or her clothes. She never dresses to attract attention. She never dressed like an actress. She dressed like Grace Kelly. White gloves are her trade-mark."

Audrey Hepburn: "She has the poise of the Duchess of Windsor. She looks deliberately different from other women. She consults her husband on any personal clothes."

The queen

THE fashion queen? The dress doctor chooses Marlene Dietrich.

Miss Head's own fashion philosophy is direct. This dress doctor decrees: "Clothes are a practical therapy and a woman's happiness. They can actually give a woman personality."

Also, seems that a man can only become distinctive by shaving his head like Yul Brynner.

(London Express Service).

Switch

THE designer found the same difficulties in Sophia Loren. She went to her with sketches of blue jeans and sweatshirts; the clothes an American girl would wear. But not Loren. "I do not wear blue jeans," she said icily.

In real life Sophia Loren is the complete opposite to her enigmatic, sexy screen roles; poised, organised, dignified, slightly formal. "The closer she resembles a statue the better she looks."

With some actresses, though, it is better to stick close to the original. With Mae West, the closer the better. "I like 'em tight, girls," ordered Miss West whenever Miss Head went up to see her.

Result: "There wasn't a costume in which she could fit."

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

* * * * *

Two Giants Meet At Wembley

OXFORD WIN AFTER 5 YEARS

After a string of defeats that had lasted since 1954, and a welter of pre-race wrangles over coaching and policy, Oxford last Saturday week finally managed a win in the Varsity boat race finishing in 18 minutes 52 seconds a convincing six lengths ahead of Cambridge.

The race—the 105th—was a straightforward win, with Oxford, stroked by J. R. H. Lander (Shrewsbury and Christ Church) taking a canvas lead in the first minute, and gradually extending it throughout the race, though consistently striking a lower rate than Cambridge stroked by M. B. Maltby (Bedford and Pembroke).

Incidentally this was the first Oxford crew for some years to take to the river with an all-English eight.

Picture shows Oxford gradually pushing ahead to their win.—London Express Photo.

ENGLAND-SCOTLAND GAME IS THE CLIMAX OF THEIR GREAT CAREERS

By TOM FINNEY

(Of Preston North End and England)

As the English and Scottish teams leave the Wembley dressing-rooms on April 11 and step into the long hospital-white corridor which leads to the arena, my thoughts will be with two men . . . fair-haired Billy Wright and dark-jowled Andy Beatty.

Both are close friends of mine and both will have good reason to remember this game long after their memories of most other matches have faded.

For Billy, it will be the hundredth time he has played for England, and for Andy the newly-appointed Scottish manager—it will be the climax of a great comeback story.

I have a personal interest in Billy Wright's international career, because the two of us have virtually followed the same trail since making our joint debuts at Windsor Park, Belfast, in September, 1946.

Blond Bombshell

I can still remember that day as though it were only yesterday. The Irish, with men like Peter Doherty and Johnny Carey in their ranks, were overtaken 7-2 by one of the best English sides I've played in.

I was on the right wing and Billy just behind me at right-half. Wilf Mannion stole much of the thunder with a brilliant half-trick, but another blond bombshell burst into the corner line later that day. Billy's fast head was everywhere. He punched pass after pass up to his forwards, yet still found time to be in the thick of the fray whenever England were under pressure.

As Billy Wright and I stood by the rail of our Liverpool-bound ship watching the Irish const disappear, we wondered what the future held for us.

Despite our high hopes and youthful ambitions, neither of us dreamed for a moment that, within the space of 12½ years, we would be sharing 170 caps.

Household Word

And how could the then 22-year-old Billy Wright know that one day he would become the most famous international captain in the world? His name is a household word wherever soccer is played?

I have seen him recognized by fans on the streets of Moscow, Rome, Vienna, Lisbon, Madrid, Paris and even along that millionaire's playground at Rio, the Copacabana Beach.

Yet at home there are still people who say that Billy is a good player, but not a great one. Surely they must realize you have to be more than just good to play 100 times for England!

So why has this belief grown up?

Partly, I think, because Billy Wright—like the majority of sporting topliners—makes everything appear very simple.

You rarely see him do anything spectacular. He seldom has to run. The ball just seems to come to him and opposing centre-forwards more often than not appear to be having an "off-day."

Proof Of Greatness

But if you asked international leaders such as Simonov, the Russian, and Menzola of Brazil to account for such "off-days," they would soon explain that a man can play only as well as he is allowed to.

If any further proof of Wright's greatness is needed, remember that he was first picked for England at inside-forward and then switched to right-half, where he performed very capably until 1955 when England were having difficulty in finding a worthy successor to Neil Franklin.

He has accomplished the switch to the pivot position so successfully that the sports-writers who attended last year's World Cup competition at Gothenburg elected him as the greatest centre-half of them all.

One Of The Best

The ability to fit so many different roles so superbly is given only to a very select few; only the truly great players have it.

Sever Russians and five overseas players will take part. Today the players were classed in the following order:

Icelander Heads List Of World's Top Chessmen

Moscow, April 6. The Icelandic player, Frederic Olafsson, was today classed first among the 12 top world chess players who will take part in the international tournament opening here tomorrow.

The Japanese players, who dominated the world championships, have received first-round bye and play their first matches on Wednesday.

The Koreans will still be able to compete in the doubles. The English championships today were confined to preliminary rounds.

The Japanese players, who dominated the world championships, have received first-round bye and play their first matches on Wednesday.

They finished runners-up to Japan in the Commonwealth Cup, while their two men players, Sung In Pak and Kyung Ho Lee, though not in the same class as the women in world ranking, are colourful performers.—Reuter.

Warned

Later it became known that the Koreans have been warned that they will not be allowed to compete in the doubles on Friday, unless they are present on Thursday morning.

Their absence would rob the tournament of one of its biggest attractions for the Korean women's team of Kyung Cho Cho, Kyong Ja Choe and Chung Hi Lee are now ranked second in the world.

They finished runners-up to Japan in the Commonwealth Cup, while their two men players, Sung In Pak and Kyung Ho Lee, though not in the same class as the women in world ranking, are colourful performers.—Reuter.

No Konrads-Rose Clash Until The Rome Games

Sydney, April 6. Australia's wonder swimmer John Konrads and Olympic gold medallist, Murray Rose, now in America, are not to clash in a serious race until the Rome Olympics next year.

Rose, at the weekend, swam the fastest ever 440 yards in winning his third United States title this year.

He clocked four minutes 18 seconds which is inside Konrads' world record of 4:19.

But Konrads' time established in Sydney on February 7 stands as the world record because Rose swam over 25-yard laps.

Konrads swam his time over 55-yard laps at North Sydney Pool.

'WOULD BEAT KONRADS'

Rose's coach, Sam Herford, said: "Today he was more convinced than ever that Rose would beat Konrads when they met."

"I am certain Murray will retain his 400 and 1,000 metres titles at the Games, despite the great challenge from Konrads," said Herford.

"Murray will be home for a month after competing in the Japanese titles early in August.

"He then will return to America and is not due in Sydney again until next March.

"He then will do a course of calisthenics before going to Townsville to train with the Olympic squad."—China Mail Special.

Lucien Mias To Retire

Pairs, April 6. Lucien Mias, who has just led France to victory in the Rugby Union International championship, is to retire from international rugby after the match against Ireland in Dublin next Saturday.

"Next season, I shall play for Maizan (this club) and the Medical University side," said Mias, who is a doctor.

Asked by reporters whether he could suggest who should replace him as a second row forward, Mias said:

"My job is finished. Ask the 'selectors.'—China Mail Special.

Koreans Not Playing In English Open Table Tennis Singles

London, April 6. The South Korean table tennis players who have been competing at the world championships in Dortmund, West Germany, have scratched from the singles of the English open championships which started today.

The organisers received a message from Dortmund that the Koreans were "too exhausted to travel" and would not arrive in London until Wednesday.

The Koreans will still be able to compete in the doubles. The English championships today were confined to preliminary rounds.

The Japanese players, who dominated the world championships, have received first-round bye and play their first matches on Wednesday.

They finished runners-up to Japan in the Commonwealth Cup, while their two men players, Sung In Pak and Kyung Ho Lee, though not in the same class as the women in world ranking, are colourful performers.—Reuter.

They finished runners-up to Japan in the Commonwealth Cup, while their two men players, Sung In Pak and Kyung Ho Lee, though not in the same class as the women in world ranking, are colourful performers.—Reuter.

They finished runners-up to Japan in the Commonwealth Cup, while their two men players, Sung In Pak and Kyung Ho Lee, though not in the same class as the women in world ranking, are colourful performers.—Reuter.

TAE GAMBOLES

DO YOU LIKE THIS TYPHOON RED?
OR THIS UNLUCKY LILAC?

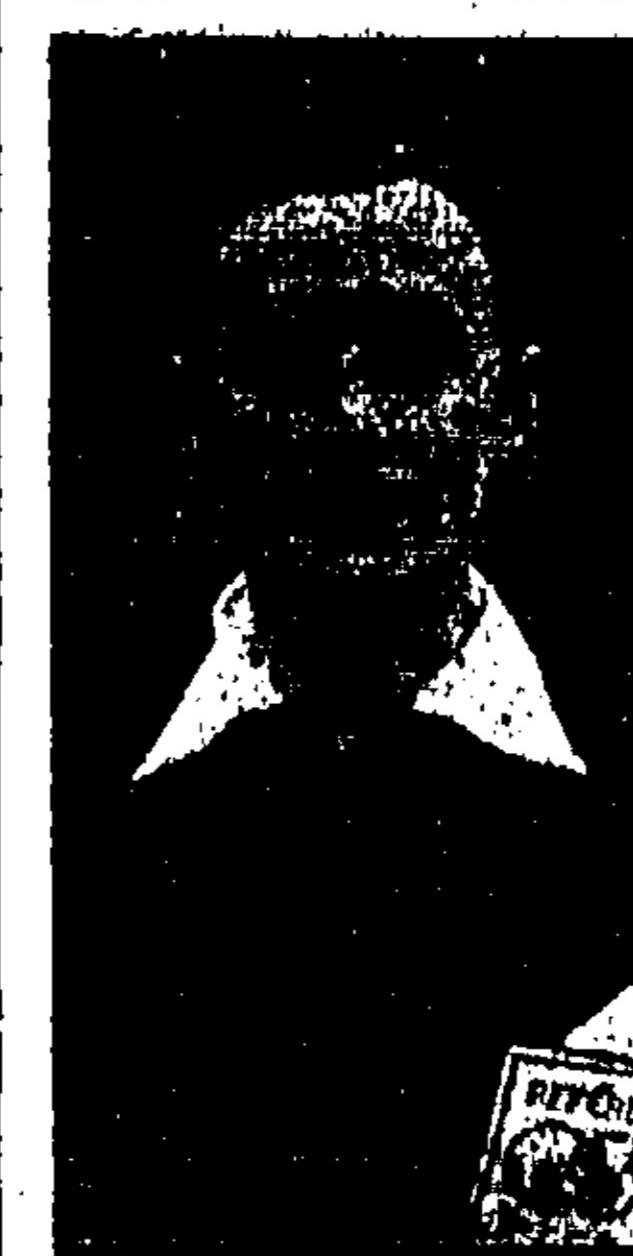

DAPPLE GREY?
OR GOVERNMENT YELLOW?

ANY SHADE OF WHITE SO LONG
AS IT WON'T FADE
PAINTS

By Barry Appleby

BANGKOK

HE WILL REFEREE THE CUP FINAL

JACK CLOUGH

For the first time since 1952, no Lancashire team is engaged in the Cup Final.

But there will be a Lancashire referee on duty at the Wembley encounter between Nottingham Forest and Luton Town on May 2.

He is 49-year-old Mr Jack Clough of Bolton, who has for some years been considered in line for a Cup Final invitation, the greatest honour open to an English referee.

South American critics believe URUGUAY will be the No. 1 threat to Brazilian supremacy by the time the 1962 World Cup comes around.

PHIL WOODS, Welsh Ham's £30,000 Welsh international inside-forward, has made a remarkable recovery following his carriage operation.

Huddersfield. He had piloted them into the First Division, but they were tumbling back into the Second.

I met Andy just before Town were relegated and found it difficult to recognise the cool, poised player I had so admired during his Preston days.

Disillusioned

He was taut, tense and terribly disillusioned. So it came as no surprise to me when he quit soccer swearing never to return.

But men like Andy Beatty love soccer too much to turn their backs on it forever.

Andy came back last year as manager of Fourth Division Carlisle and soon revealed that his magic touch had not deserted him.

Under his direction, Carlisle became transformed into a smooth, ball-playing combination and Scotland's football chiefs began to think again.

Once they realised that Matt Busby's decision to retire from the post of Scottish manager was final, they re-appointed Andy Beatty fast.

And so within the space of two seasons, Andy has resurrected the soccer starway of success.

That, too, takes greatness.

(All Rights Reserved)

International Chess Tourney

London, April 6. Nikolai Karakalov of Yugoslavia, today beat the English player, O. M. Hindle to take the lead with 5½ points in the International chess tournament.

Second, with 4½ points is his compatriot, L. Cripinskis, while Hindle and Gereben (Switzerland) share third place with four points.

Today was the fifth day of the tournament.—France Presse.

Reason for the change of site—announced earlier today—according to promoter Mr D'Amato, Patterson and Cecil Rhodes, calling for a fight in Las Vegas on May 1.

"I have been on the phone with them all day but we have not reached any agreement. That's where it stands."—Reuter.

Not Agreed

Later in New York, Mr Tom Gally, sports director of the National Broadcasting Company, said that he had a signed contract for the fight in Las Vegas, and had not agreed to the switch.

"There wasn't legally or illegally," he added, "but I don't want that kind of implication."

France's Rugby Team For Ireland Match

Paris, April 6. France's Rugby Union team to play Ireland in Dublin on April 18 will be the same as that which beat Wales here on Saturday, the French Federation announced today.

The team is: Pierre Lacaze (Lourdes), Jean Dupuy (Tarbes), Armand Marquesat (Racing Club), Jacques Bouquet (Vitry), Henri Buncoule (Lourdes), Pierre Danos (Béziers), Alfred Roques (Cahors), Robert Vialer (Montpellier), Alain Quaglio (Mazamet, captain), Bernard Moncada (Givors), François Moncada (Givors), Michel Craste (Racing Club), Jean-Pierre Peltier (Lyon), Jean-Michel Sallier (Toulouse), Jean-Pierre Léveillé.

The players were said to have had five years' experience together and will have pre-tournament matches in Korea.

Other nations taking part are the Philippines, Burma, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Ceylon, Japan, Thailand, Singapore and Malaya.

CANADA CUP GOLF SCHOOL

Aim for par and take to the woods!

By DAI REES
(Wales and South Africa)

MY favourite shot is a long wood to the green. The club I use for it is my favourite No. 4 wood or a No. 3 wood. I rank this shot second only to those vital putts. It can, I firmly believe, make or break a good score.

It is equal in value to the tiger or the average golfer. If the tiger is the master of his spoon shots then he can be looking for birdies at all the par 5 holes.

If Mr Average Player is having a difficult time with the No. 2 and 3 irons he can get a lot of relief with a spoon shot—particularly with the No. 4 wood.

The broad-soled, lofted No. 4, with its narrow head to get into the nooks and crannies of the fairways, is the ideal club to counter indifferent or cuppy lies.

It is a club that certainly no woman golfer should be without. It is equally indispensable to men players who are not, for physical reasons or because of their limited amount of golf, strong in the wrists.

WATCH THOSE FEET

Now for playing this long fairway wood shot—it is the same for the No. 3 or No. 4 wood.

THE KEY TO THE SHOT IS THE CORRECT POSITION OF THE BALL IN RELATION TO THE FEET

With the feet square to the intended line of flight, a line drawn from the ball should strike a spot two inches inside the left heel for the two spoons—for the driver it is just inside the left heel.

Swing just as you do for any other shot. A final point—pay particular attention to your lining up the shot. It is about the longest you will play to the definite target of a green. Any error will be magnified at the far end.

AND THOSE INCHES

As I have been asked to launch this series I will throw in an early season tip for good measure.

It concerns those extra inches you may have added round the middle. Here's how to beat them:—

Concentrate on trying to take the club a little bit further in the back swing.

WHY ENGLAND LOST THE ASHES

Noted Writer Blames Captain And Manager In Newly Written Book

By VERNON MORGAN

London. Easter brought with it the first of the books by cricket correspondents with the MCC team in Australia as to why England lost the Ashes.

John Kay, the noted North of England writer, has written a frank account of his view of the tour in "England Down Under" (Sporting Handbooks Ltd., 16/-) and openly lays most of the blame on captain Peter May and manager Freddie Brown.

"Between them, May and Brown must answer for the complete failure of the tour," writes Kay. "It was May's job to have complete control, but Brown shared the task without objection and the result was dissatisfaction everywhere."

On May he has picked the wrong sports of leadership. He did not manage to inspire his men as a captain should, at all times on and off the field.

Declaring that no cricket team can look after themselves on and off the field, Kay writes: "They need an iron hand and May had only the velvet glove."

Writing that the fielding was at times deplorable and would

Bulgaria Win Youth Soccer Championship

Sofia, April 6. Bulgaria beat Italy 1-0 in the final of the international youth soccer tournament at Sofia, Bulgaria, today.

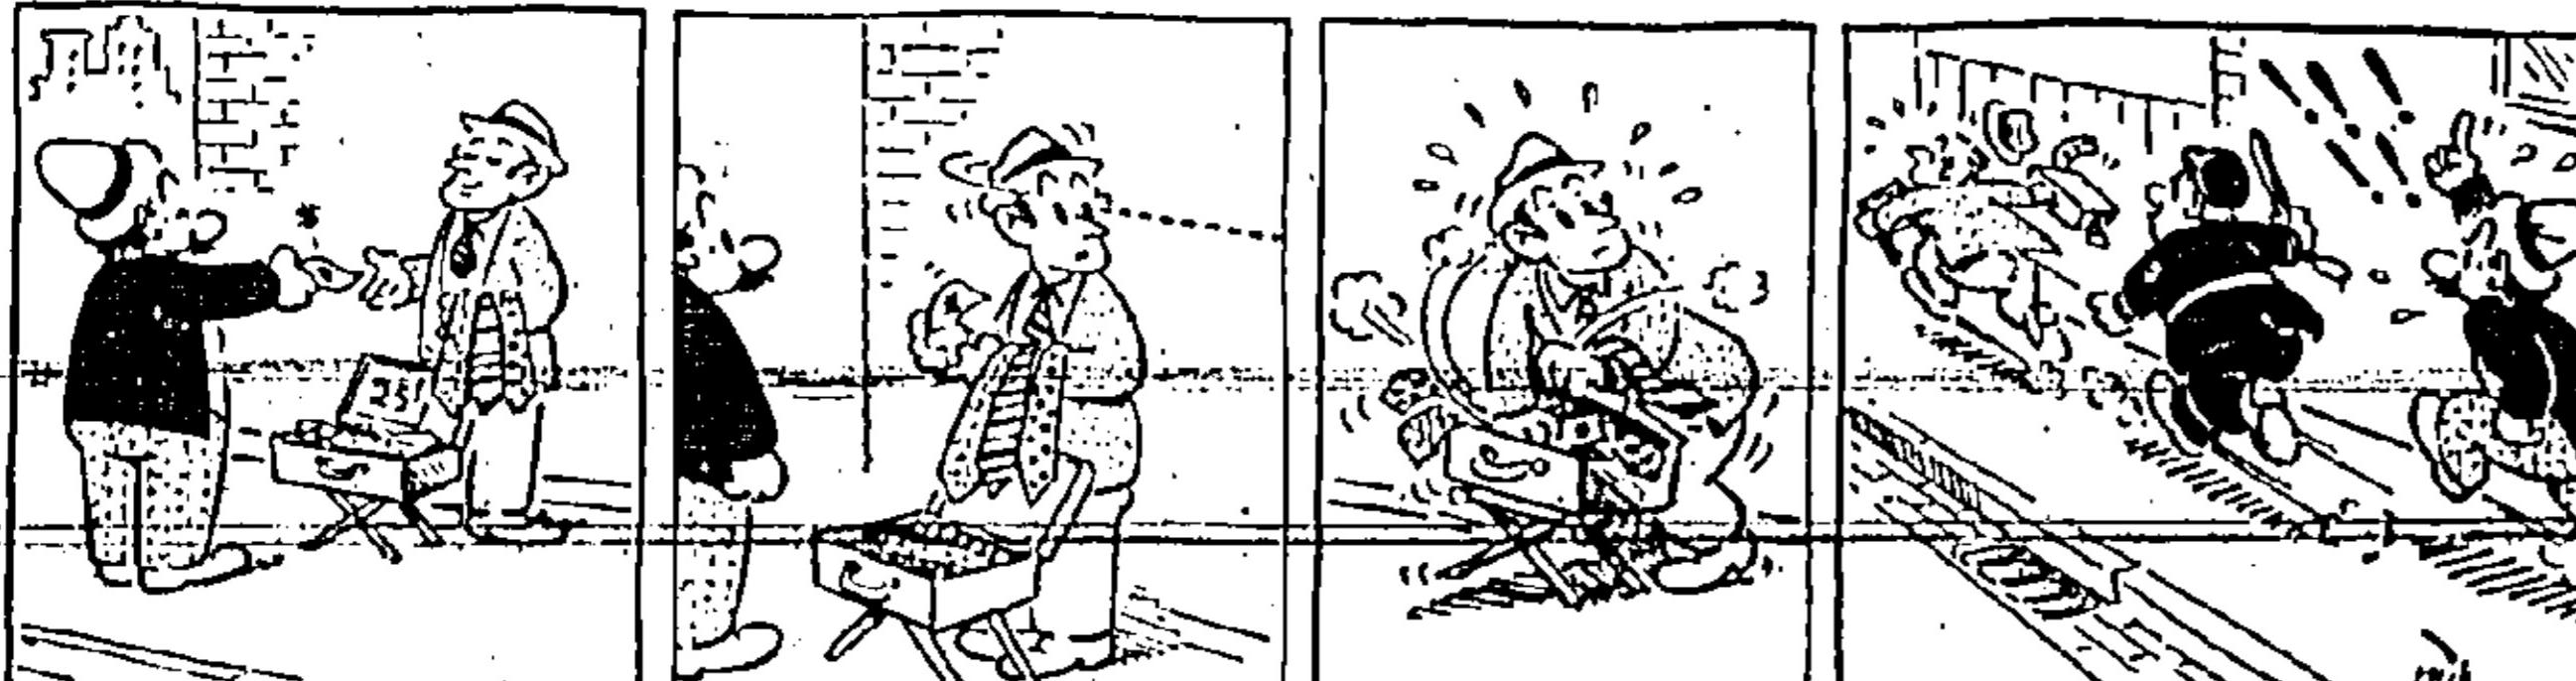

The winning goal came in the first half.

Hungary finished third in the tournament, which began on March 25, and East Germany finished fourth.—Reuter.

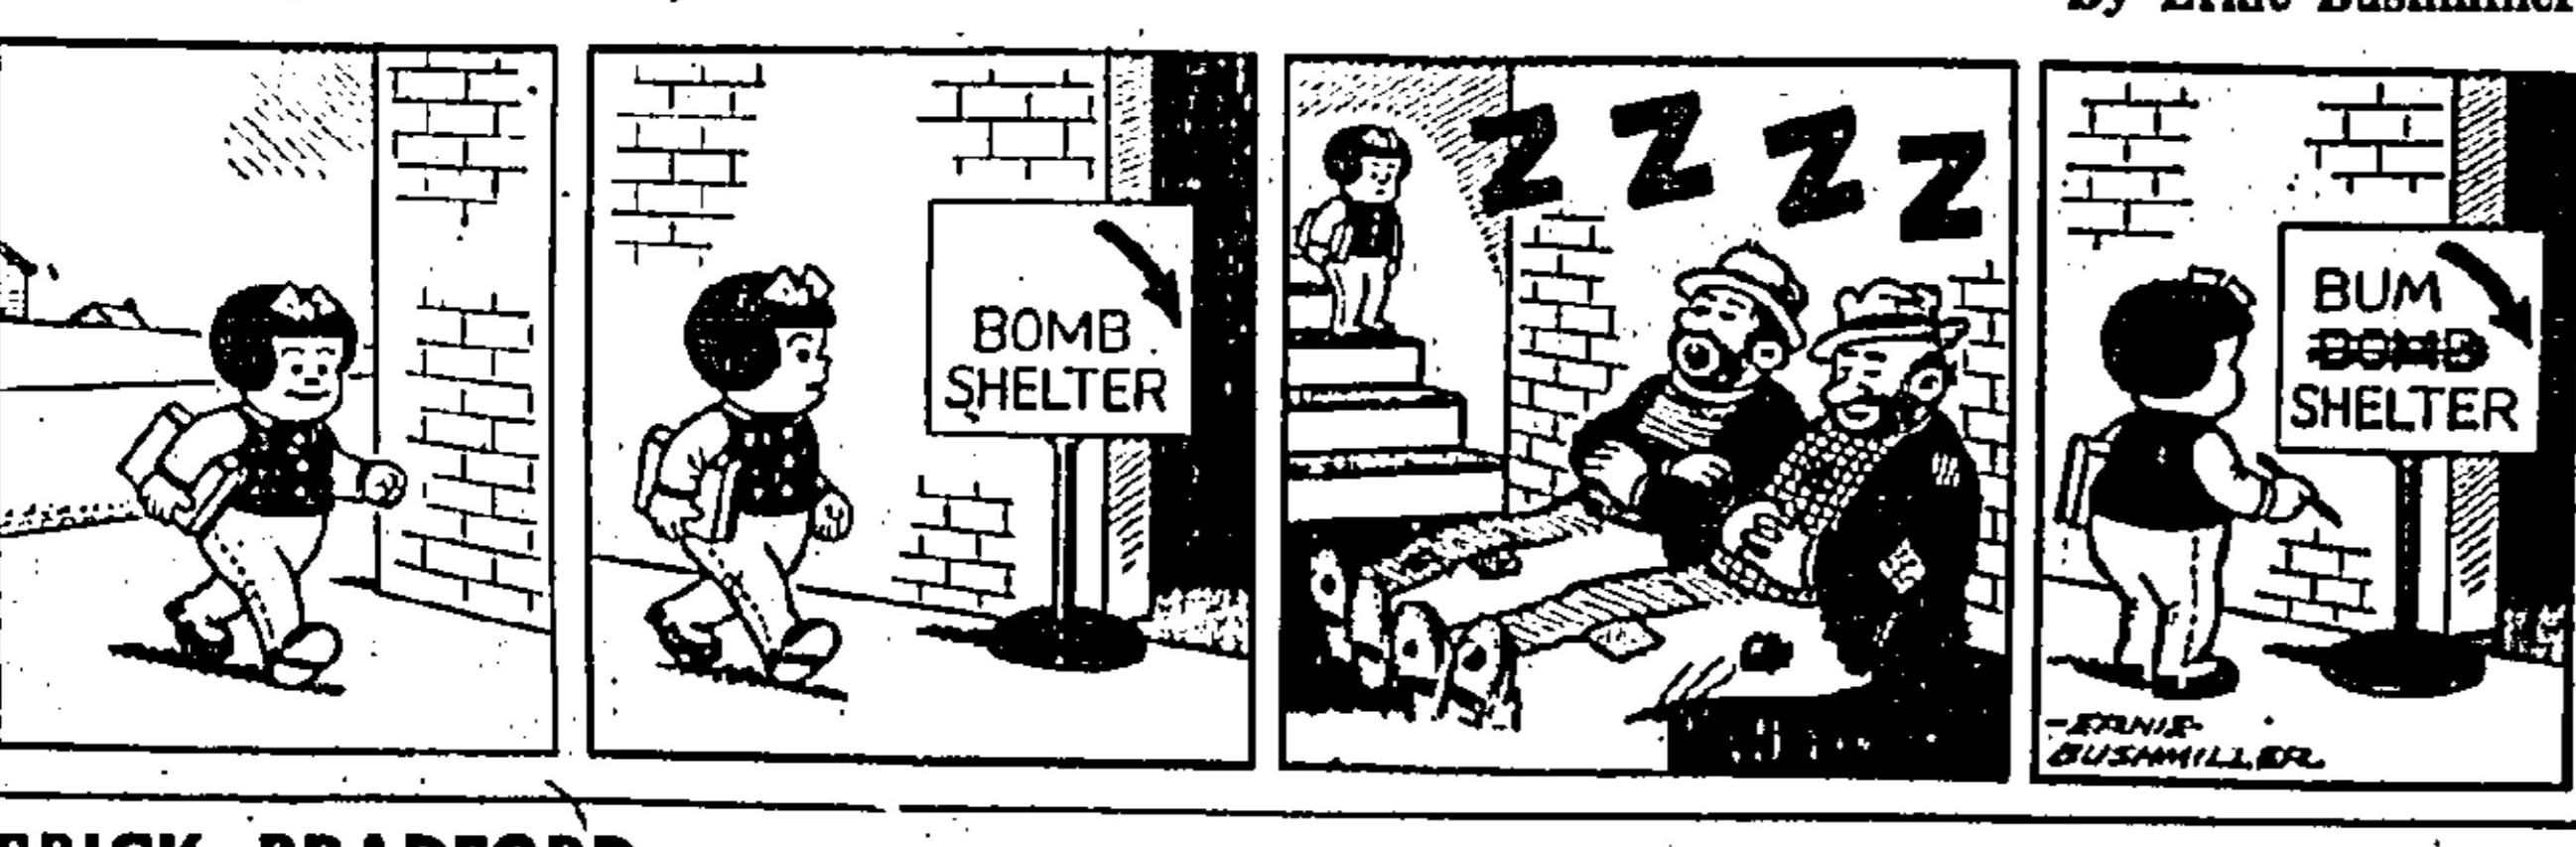

FOUR D. JONES

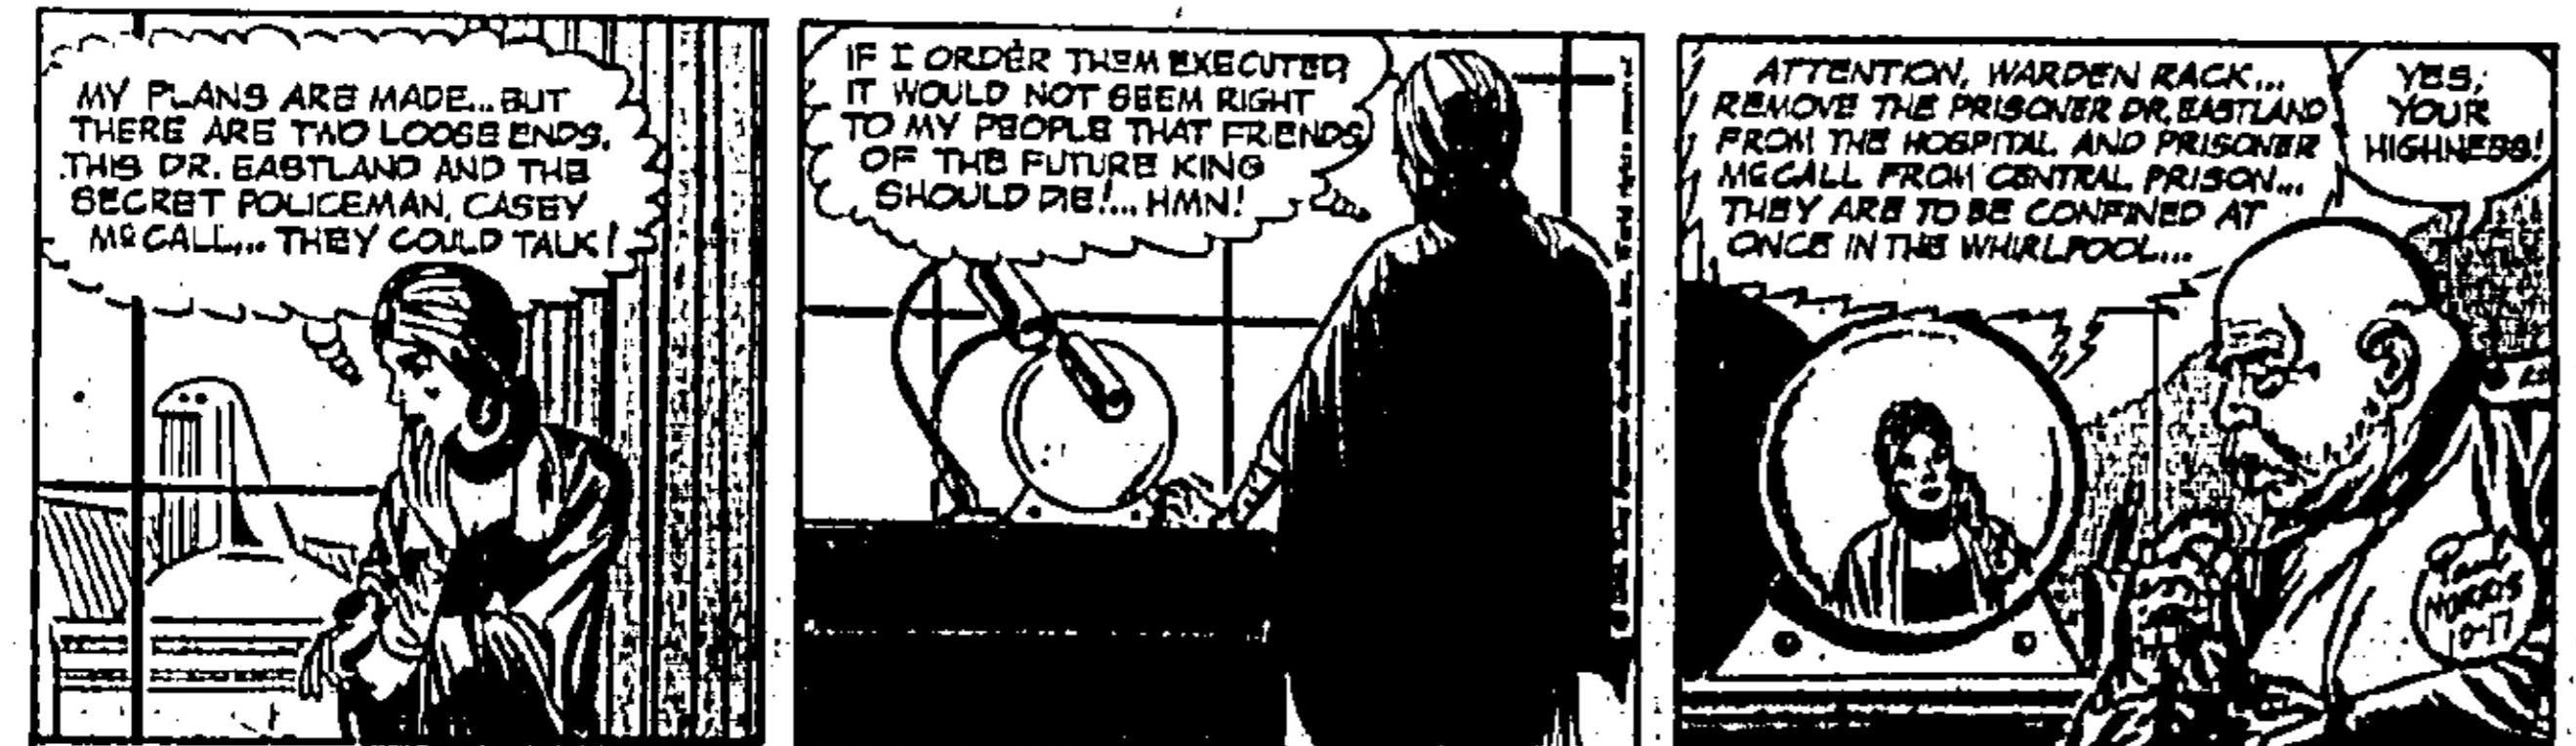

FERD'NAND

NANCY

BRICK BRADFORD

Rugby Union Results

TODAY

Hockey Portugal Trial match at Reccles ground.

TO-MORROW

Hockey Holland Cup: First Round: Army "P" v Navy "D" (SKD) 2.30 p.m.

Football C. Division: Llanelli 3, Pontypool 3.

Camborne 0, Cardiff 10.

Falmouth 0, Ebbw Vale 11.

Reuter,

17.

Swimming, etc.

Inter-school Knock-out competition semi-final, "A" Grade, Police ground, 4 p.m.

Sports Diary

TODAY

Hockey Portugal Trial match at Reccles ground.

TO-MORROW

Hockey Holland Cup: First Round: Army "P" v Navy "D" (SKD) 2.30 p.m.

Football C. Division: Llanelli 3, Pontypool 3.

Camborne 0, Cardiff 10.

Falmouth 0, Ebbw Vale 11.

Reuter,

17.

Swimming, etc.

Inter-school Knock-out competition semi-final, "A" Grade, Police ground, 4 p.m.

BRITISH SPORTS WORLD FIGHTS POLIO

By OUR OWN REPORTER

London.

Britain's sportsmen are to back an all-out drive to persuade the youth of the United Kingdom to act now to prevent serious outbreaks of polio. Many famous football teams, headed by Arsenal, have volunteered to be immunised.

British Ministry of Health officials and doctors are seriously concerned that although there is enough vaccine and facilities to protect every youth and girl between the ages of 10 and 25, only one in 12 is coming forward.

Now medical advisers to the athletes, footballers, swimmers, boxers and other leading sports organisations are backing an urgent campaign launched by the Ministry of Health, Mr Derek Walker-Smith.

Speaking for Britain's young boxers, Mr A. G. Magone, chief medical adviser to the Board of Boxing Control, said: "I believe that sportsmen should set the example that could so easily stamp out this scourge, that seems to particularly affect fit young men."

'Likes Best Bodies'

One of Britain's leading specialists in the treatment of athletic complaints, and adviser to many of the leading organisations, said:

"We do not yet know why polio seems to strike the fittest and best. It may be that this terrible virus likes the best bodies."

"But it is clear that sportsmen, who as a rule are in close contact with each other, are very vulnerable."

"We cannot do more than urge those we advise to take advantage of the protection that the new vaccines provide."

Swimming clubs, cricket clubs and athletic organisations of all kinds are backing the campaign to act quickly before the "polio season" starts in a few weeks.

Said a Ministry of Health official: "If the sportsmen lead the way we feel confident that the youth of the country will follow their lead. This appeal to the age group that they largely belong to is of the greatest importance."

Mr Walker-Smith said: "I welcome this action and hope that it will encourage all young people to follow suit. Polio can be a crippling disease and for those in the 15 to 20 age group who get it the severity and degree of paralysis are likely to be greater than in the case of children. Why risk this?"

UK Soccer Results

London, April 6. Results of tonight's British football matches were:

ENGLISH LEAGUE

Division I Preston 0, Luton Town 0.

Division II Stoke 0, Sunderland 0.

Division III Mansfield 1, Norwich C. 1.

Division IV Northampton 0, Carlisle U. 0.

Exeter City 1, Gateshead 1.

SCOTTISH LEAGUE

Division I Raith Rovers 3, Celtic 1.

Rangers 3, Queen of the South 1.—Reuter.

Mr H. D. Sted: Photo shown was that of Fred Norris.

JOHN THOMAS RECOVERING FROM INJURY

Boston, April 6. John Thomas, the 13-year-old American Negro who is the world's number one high-jumper, left the Massachusetts Memorial Hospital here today after undergoing a successful treatment for the severe injuries he received to his left foot in a lift accident.

Thomas walked with the aid of crutches and his foot was in plaster. But a doctor who examined him before his discharge said he was on the road to complete recovery.

Thomas, who has jumped the world's best-ever height of 2.16 metres (7 ft. 1½ ins.), will make time in the University of Boston University and he hopes to take up his studies again at the end of the week.

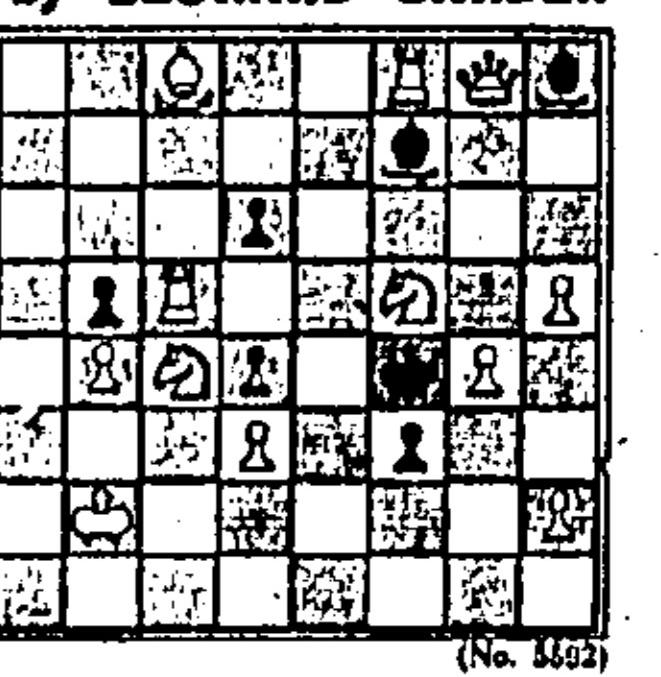

The accident occurred at the University 12 days ago. He caught his left foot, his jumping foot, between a lift and a lift-shaft.—France-Press.

Women's Hockey

London, April 6. In the second match of their English tour, the Australian women's hockey team were beaten by three goals to two at Leicester today by a strong Midlands side.—France-Press.

CHESS

by LEONARD BARDEEN

London Express Photo.

European Champion Suffers Strange K.O.

Newcastle, April 6. Young Martin, Spanish holder of the European flyweight title, was knocked out by George Bowes, of Britain, in the second round of a scheduled 10-round bantamweight contest here tonight.

Martin, who is scheduled to meet Paco Perez, Argentinian's world flyweight champion, later this year, appeared to misjudge the count reached ten.

Martin got to his feet immediately afterwards, and looked astounded when the referee indicated that the contest was over.

There was no question that Martin was fully capable of going on with the fight for he appeared unharmed.

PROTESTED

Afterwards Martin, who speaks very little English, indicated with his hands that he knew when the referee had reached six but did not understand anything after that.

Mr Roger Colson, Martin's agent, protested that the referee, Mr Eugene Henderson, had not indicated on his hands how the count was going.

Mr Henderson said that he had to go by the timekeeper, who had reached the count of ten with Martin still down.

Bowes, a contender for the British title, seemed unperturbed by Martin's southpaw stance, although unable to land any real punch in a quiet first round.—Reuter.

Sheaffer's
NEW BALLPOINT
WITH EXCLUSIVE
STERLING SILVER TIP

SWISSAIR

ROWNTREE'S
MILK CHOCOLATE
THAT'S DIFFERENT!

INTERPLANETARY FLIGHT COSTS MILLIONS

But 470 which is a 1950 model A/70 is priced at only $2,000.00

METRO CARS (H.K.) LTD.

GILES ANNUAL

See what they say about Giles —

"His superb draughtsmanship coupled with a flair for social satire make him a present-day Hogarth."

—Vicky.

"He always manages to hit the nail on the head — but in such a funny way. He is my favourite cartoonist by far."

—Pat Smythe.

"In every one of his cartoons he says 'This Is Your Life', and goes right to the core of it."

—Eamonn Andrews.

"I can't say — he just makes me laugh. And anyone that makes me laugh can have my money."

—Stanley Holloway.

$4.50

Obtainable from SOUTH CHINA MORNING POST, LTD.
HONGKONG
KOWLOON

CHINA MAIL
LAW & WIGGINS STREET

HONGKONG
PUBLISHED DAILY
(AFTERNOON)
Price, 20 cents per copy,
Saturdays 30 cents.
Subscription: $6.00 per month.
Postage: China and Macao $3.00 per month, U.S.A. $4.00 per month and other countries $7.00 per month.
News contributions always welcome, should be addressed to the Editor, business communications and advertisements to the Secretary.
Telephone: 2601 (5 lines).

KOWLOON OFFICE:
Salisbury Road.
Telephone: 61165.

Classified
Advertisements
20 WORDS $4.00
for 1 DAY PREPAID
ADDITIONAL INSERTIONS
$2.00 PER DAY
10 cents PER WORD OVER 20
Births, Deaths, Marriages,
Personal $5.00 per insertion not exceeding 25 words. 25 cents each additional word.
ALTERNATE INSERTIONS
10% EXTRA
If not prepaid a booking fee of 50 cents is charged.

MUSICAL

EVERYTIME the critics say it's for Wellington with such rave notices as "Overwhelming," "wonderful,"
"Profundly moving," etc. We recommend Maestro Symonoff No. 2 from the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra Handel's Israel in Egypt and a host of titles in both stereo and monaural versions at 75c. Postage N. 25c. Money order to: 25a Alexandra House, Telephone: 30100, 28000.

WANTED KNOWN

SUITES? PIMPER? KAMIKAMI? conceals as it heals. Get a hand treatment two sizes available from leading Dispensaries and Stores.

STAMPS

SOMETHING EXCLUSIVE. Collector packets of assorted stamps from China, Hong Kong, New Zealand, Australia, Fiji, Samoa, Malaya, Road, Kowloon.

NOTICE TO CONSIGNEES

LTD. "TADING"

Arrived 4th April, 1959
Damaged cargo ex. this vessel will be surveyed by Messrs. Woods
& Brown Ltd., 10th Floor, 100 Queen's Wharf, Godown at 10.00 a.m. on Wednesday, 8th April and Thursday,
9th April, 1959. All consignees representatives are requested to be present during survey.

BUTTERFIELD & SWINE
OLK LTD.

Agents
Australian Oriental Line, Ltd.
The China Navigation Co., Ltd.

To ADVERTISERS

SUNDAY POST-HERALD

Space for commercial advertising should be booked not later than noon on Wednesdays.

FOR THE SOUTH CHINA MORNING POST AND THE CHINA MAIL, 48 hours before date of publication.

Special Announcements and Classified Advertisements as usual."

SAVE A LIFE!

Become A BLOOD DONOR

The British Red Cross Blood
Collecting Centre is now on the 8th Floor of Fung House, Connaught Road, Central.

ANY FIRM USING THE NAME
APPLIED TO OURZORIC™DRYCLEANING SYSTEM HAS NO CONNECTION WHATSOEVER WITH THE UNDERMENTIONED CO.

PLEASE TELEPHONE DIRECT TO

59195

FOR COLLECTIONS AND DELIVERIES

THE STEAM LAUNDRY CO.

No. 1, Kwong Wo Street, Kowloon.

Microbes Dance To Rock 'n' Roll

The radio blares. Ten million arms and legs twitch compulsively to a throbbing rhythm. We always thought it was a Bacchic rock 'n' roll phenomenon.

But now American scientists have made a startling discovery which may mean that there is a strict scientific explanation.

Biologists at the New England Institute for Medical Research have discovered that the behaviour and movement of living cells can be influenced by radio waves.

One-cell organisms like the tiny cigar-shaped ciliates, can be made to swim to and fro in strict lines like swimmers in a swimming race when radio waves are broadcast through their swimming liquid.

The scientists have been so excited by this strange phenomenon that they have been staying up night after night developing radio techniques that enable them to "play these things like a piano," flipping them deliriously in various directions.

It is a fantastic scientific discovery that poses new mysteries, and may usher in new knowledge of living tissues. And — by the way — is very doubtful that it has anything to do with those rock 'n' roll twitches. They involve a mystery which is well beyond man's comprehension.

EDDIE FISHER's bit to Elizabeth Taylor: a purse with LIZ spelt out in 27 diamonds—one for each year of her life.

SHE SAID she was going to be married. She was a trousseau. She said that was really one way she could think of getting one—and so it was that 25-year-old Ann Mileo found herself in a bank queue in the Greater New York Savings Bank in Brooklyn.

When she got to the clerk's window she handed over a note telling him to hand over 1,000 dollars ($1357) and that her hidden gunmen would shoot him down if he did not.

"Are you kidding?" unrambling bank clerk Stanley Egenes asked. "No," he said.

Then began a staring match which Egenes won. Ann Mileo's nerve broke. She walked out of the bank.

Egenes caught up with her half a mile away. Now she is in jail, accused of attempted robbery.

A NGRY telephone callers jammed the switchboard of radio station WTRB in Ripley, Tennessee, to protest against the revolutionary, shocking panic-provoking broadcast by the station yesterday.

Local business man James W.

Porter bought 15 minutes of time on the station and devoted it almost exclusively to that disgusting manifestation.

Porter started the quarter-hour by shattering several gramophone records.

He proposed a "National Can the Racket League," and then shouted: "Friends, are you part, the traffic constitutes one of the greatest educational windfalls ever perpetrated on American youth.

Its aim is not the education of that youth but the entertainment of his elders, not the welfare of the athlete but the pleasure of the spectator."

MARIELLA DI SARZANA, the Italian girl who married Irish-born actor Stephen Boyd in London last summer, tense, nervous, jittery? The chances are you are over-tuned. You may have tried other stations without success, but now we offer you an amazing new discovery—instant silence."

The rest was silence.

IT WAS the fourth time Tommy Jackson, of Miami, had been caught rolling the dice on a street corner.

"Very well, Tommy," said Judge Mitchell Goldman. "Gamble this time. Would you like to roll the dice for your sentence?"

That was one gamble Tommy didn't fancy. So Judge Goldman rolled the bones for him. As the dice came to a halt on the judge's desk he said cheerfully: "It's a two and a one—that's three. We will give you 30 days. Now there are protests, and Jackson has been released after serving five days.

Riflemen Terry (retired) and wife Edna.

Terry Dene Gets His "Ticket"

Riflemen Williams, T. (retired) packed up his troubles in his not so old kit bag and thought ahead to the time when as Terry Dene he may be rock 'n' rolling with £350 a week again. But it won't be yet.

Just 24 hours earlier the military career of the 19-year-old rock 'n' roller ended exactly 62 days and nine hours after he joined the Green Jackets with a great fanfare of publicity.

The army gave him his "ticket"—discharged unfit—and home he went from the mental hospital where he spent most of his time.

His husband, carpenter James Smith, slept peacefully in the bedroom next door.

When the baby arrived, 38-year-old Mrs. Smith banged on the wall and told him to come to see his new son.

"It was a good movie and I didn't want to turn it off," she said gaily.

With a flurry of wings, the swallow arrived at San Juan Capistrano, California, right on schedule. Legend says a priest at the mission gave shelter to swallows years ago when an innkeeper destroyed their nests. They have returned there on the exact anniversary every year on St. Joseph's Day.

Yesterday he spoke of his biggest problem of the future: The psychiatrist who will be around for the next two years.

"That won't be too bad," said a slimmer, paler, more subdued Dene. "I should have seen a psychiatrist years ago."

"I feel much better for all my treatment, but it is going to take at least two years before I'm really

He added: "I'm not even going to think about work for some weeks yet. Edna and I plan to take a holiday in the sun, to get ourselves well and straighten things out."

Does he think all the rumour that was his National Service has finished him with his fans? "No, I had some wonderful letters while I was in hospital," said Dene. "I will be back but not just yet."

CROSSWORD

ONE of the afflictions of the Beantiks is to pose answerless, meaningless questions. Therein is supposed to lie the true wisdom of the Beantiks.

Poet Robert LeVigne claims that one of these Beantiks came up to him with the mystical question: "If this is two hands clapping—and he clapped his hands—"what is the sound of one hand clapping?"

LeVigne produced the sound of one hand clapping the Beantik across the cheek.

Mail Notices

TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 1959

Vietnam, Cambodia, France, 3 p.m.
Canada, 4 p.m.
U.S.A., 6 p.m.
Hawaii, 8 p.m.
Thailand, Burma, India, 8 p.m.
Malaya, 8 p.m.
Burma, 8 p.m.

Korea, 8 p.m.
Macau, 8 p.m.
Wednesday, APRIL 8

By Air
Vietnam, Cambodia, Malaya, Indonesia, 8 a.m.
Singapore, Guam, 8 a.m.
Lace, 9 a.m.
Japan, 9 a.m.
Korea, 9 a.m.
Burma, India, Pakistan, Middle East, Africa, Great Britain & Europe, New Zealand, Fiji, 1 p.m.
Territory of Papua and New Guinea, Australia, New Zealand, Fiji, 2 p.m.
Philippines, 2 p.m.
U.S.A., 4 p.m.
Thailand, Burma, 6 p.m.
Formosa, Japan, Korea, 6 p.m.

Across

1. Winter berries (4, 5)

2. After 1, pay at the box office (1, 2, 2)

3. A circle (3)

4. At first instance (6, 4)

5. Feeding places (8)

6. Shining (8)

7. Where a small boy may forget (10)

8. Longer uses (8)

9. Shakespearean king (4)

10. Living quarters (8)

11. Waves (4)

12. Longer uses (8)

13. Fences (8)

14. Rivers (8)

15. Seize (8)

16. Crystal (8)

17. City of India (4)

18. Birth (9)

19. Usual (9)

20. Metal (4)

21. Chalk (4)

22. Occasional (8)

23. Shining (8)

24. Across (8)

25. Interferes (8)

26. Dances (8)

27. Gains (8)

28. Dances (8)

29. Dances (8)

30. Seize (8)

31. Fences (8)

32. Occasional (8)

33. Shining (8)

34. Metal (4)

35. Birth (9)

36. Usual (9)

37. Crystal (8)

38. Dances (8)

39. Gains (8)

40. Dances (8)

41. Dances (8)

42. Dances (8)

43. Dances (8)

44. Dances (8)

45. Dances (8)

46. Dances (8)

47. Dances (8)

48. Dances (8)

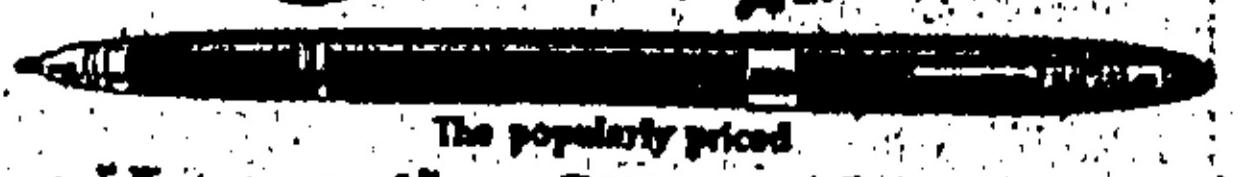

49. Dances (8)

GEORGE KENT & CO., LTD.
WATER METERS, STEAM METERS, OIL METERS, GAS METERS,
CONTROLLERS & RECORDERS.
ENGINEERING EQUIPMENT CO., LTD.
H.M. & Shanghai Bank Bldg. Tel. 27789

CHINA MAIL

Page 10

TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 1959.

Another Sheaffer's ACHIEVEMENT

The popularly priced
Imperial with SHEAFFER'S cylindrical
Gold Point and modern touch dove filling
AVAILABLE NOW AT ALL LEADING STORES

NEW HOSPITAL FOR INSANE CRIMINALS

BIG GOLD SEIZURE: 2 GAOLED

About $80,500 worth of gold was seized by Revenue officers on board a motor junk coming in from Macao last Saturday morning.

Appearing in court this morning were two crew members of the motor junk, Shing Ping, who pleaded guilty to importing gold illegally into the Colony before Mr Derek Cons, Central Magistrate.

Defendants were Young Har and Wong Kan, both of the Shing Ping. They were sentenced to three months' gaol by the Magistrate.

Revenue Inspector R. V. O. Hutton, prosecuting, said Revenue officers led by Inspector Yu Chow, acting on information, intercepted the Shing Ping as it was entering the western harbour.

Paraded On Deck

The crew was paraded on deck and asked if they had anything to declare, particularly gold. They all replied in the negative.

The vessel was searched and in the wheel house concealed in a hole was found 23 bars of gold. Wong Kan admitted carrying the gold for someone.

The motor junk was taken to the Custodian Wharf where it was searched again.

Another 20 bars of gold were found hidden in the engine room. Young Har then admitted he was carrying the gold from Macao to Hongkong for someone.

Both defendants were represented by Mr G. E. S. Stevenson of Stewart and Company.

Admiral Leaves

Rear Admiral R. L. Campbell, USN, Commander Service Force, U.S. Pacific Fleet, left this morning with a party of 11, for Taipei by U.S. Naval aircraft.

Rear Adm. Campbell had been in the Colony for the past four days on a recreation visit in the course of an inspection tour of the Far East. Rear Adm. Campbell is based in Honolulu.

DEPARTING

Group Captain H. A. S. Disney, Station Commander, RAF Kai Tak left this morning for Kuala Lumpur for reappointment. The picture below shows the family waving from the plane which took them there. The picture on the right shows Wing Commander R. C. Rotheram, the new Station Commander.

China Mail Photos.

HELP FOR SHOE MAKERS?

London, April 6.
A hint that the British Board of Trade might help shoe manufacturers meet overseas competition, especially from Hongkong and Italy, was given today in London.

Sir David Eccles, the Board's President, told a press conference:

"To a certain extent we are suffering from foreign competition and I would mention Hongkong although it is our traditional policy to admit goods from the Commonwealth."

"But we have competition from cheap shoes from Italy and I have told the footwear industry that if they apply for additional tariffs the Board of Trade will look at their application with great care."

"Some complaints about dumping of cheap shoes from behind the Iron Curtain have also been made. The same applies," he added.

"If the footwear industry feels there is a case for anti-dumping duty, let them make it and we will look at it," he said.

Sir David Eccles was giving a press conference before the opening in Harrogate, Yorkshire, tomorrow of a national exhibition of autumn shoes. It would be the largest shoe show in Europe, he said.—Reuter.

And Another For Drug Addicts?

Hongkong is to have a special hospital for the treatment of insane criminals, Dr P. M. Yap revealed today.

Dr Yap is a psychiatric specialist and medical superintendent of the Mental Hospital. He spoke of the new hospital at the Ladies' Day Luncheon at the Rotary Club this afternoon.

He also revealed that a Mental Defective Hospital may be built in Hongkong and a hospital for drug addicts.

In 1958 the Medical Department hoped to have Day Hospitals and Out-patient clinics first in Hongkong, then in Kowloon.

"The whole legislation governing our work will be reviewed and brought up to date," he said.

Dr Yap said mental illness was of frightening size in Britain and U.S.A. Almost half of all hospital beds were filled by mental patients. Four out of every 1,000 people were treated in mental hospitals at any given time.

In Hongkong, Dr Yap said there are 200 beds for mental sickness out of 6,500 beds of all kinds.

HARD-PRESSED

In the new Castle Peak mental hospital, there would be 1,000 beds. This hospital, to be completed by the end of 1960, would be among the most modern in the world.

Dr Yap added: "It is not possible to reach modern standards in the provision of treatment facilities for a long time to come. We are very hard-pressed for trained staff, and also for beds, if only because we cannot afford to pay the salaries as in general hospital work. We will do as far as we can, always be hard-pressed."

Dr Yap revealed that in the last ten years the Mental Hospital had to treat about 10,700 new cases of insanity.

"No one knows how many more there are among the beggars, vagabonds and delinquents of our midst who never get referred to us."

FRANK TRUTH

Speaking about the possibility of cures, Dr Yap said last year the Hospital admitted 900 new and 400 old cases and discharged 600 cured and 500 improved.

Speaking about those who in some way or other tried to minimise mental illness and its treatment, Dr Yap said: "The frank truth is that behind all these negative attitudes lies an irrational factor, compounded of fear and dislike."

"The lunatic often serves the function of a scapegoat for society. In the middle ages they were burnt as witches. Today they are regarded by some as possessed either by Satan or by vengeful and evil ghosts and they may still be exercised."

ALIENATED

"Mental patients are naturally estranged from the rest of their fellows. They are met at best with pointed witticisms, and at worse with indifference that is tinged with animosity."

"If by some turn of events public attitudes change, then opportunities will soon be found for useful voluntary effort in the prevention and rehabilitation of mental disease."

WAR DEBRIS STILL LITTERS NORTH SEA

London, NEARLY 14 years after the end of the war, the North Sea is still littered with debris.

Fishermen are still finding old mines, depth charges and torpedoes.

During the past year the Lowestoft trawler fleet — the biggest in the North Sea — has hauled up a dozen mines.

Most of the old mines are thought to be harmless. But a few days ago a depth charge caught fire by the crew of the trawler Bonita Pegasus and was fined $100 or one month in

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dock Explosion

Sir—Mr Graham Wilson's article on the Bombay dock explosion, published in the China Mail on April 4, made fascinating reading. As a sub reporter on the staff of The Morning Standard (now defunct) I was one of those who covered the explosion story, although our labour was all in vain. Owing to the rigid censorship in force then, we could publish only the official version of the disaster. But having witnessed the holocaust, Mr Wilson's article brought before my mind's eye the grim picture of death and destruction that the explosion of the ammunition-laden ship caused.

But there are a few blanks which I wish to fill in Mr Wilson's article. I am writing entirely from memory, but as far as I can recall, the primary reason for the failure of the Bombay Fire Brigade to extinguish the fire in the ship's hold before the ammunition—estimated by the Inquiry Commission to be equivalent approximately to 300 tons of TNT—exploded, was the fact that the gas-cutting apparatus which was available to them was not in working order. It was the object of the Fire Brigade to extinguish the seat of the fire by cutting a hole in the side of the ship. But the gas-cutting equipment failed, and later, the ship became too hot for any living person to come anywhere near it.

Mr Wilson has mentioned the names of those brave men who did their best to save lives and minimise destruction. But the names I would like to add are Mr Norman Coombes, then Chief of the Bombay Fire Brigade, and Mr M. D. Bhat, I.C.S. (no relation of mine), then Municipal Commissioner.

I may also add that the Inquiry Commission held that the rules governing the carriage and discharge of ammunition and explosives had been overstepped in the case of the s.s. Fort Stikine (Mr Wilson spells it Stirkene). Nervously, Cotton should never be located together with ammunition.

I may also add that the Inquiry Commission held that the rules governing the carriage and discharge of ammunition and explosives had been overstepped in the case of the s.s. Fort Stikine (Mr Wilson spells it Stirkene). Nervously, Cotton should never be located together with ammunition.

The artists whose work is on view are Professor Chao Shao-chang, Cheung Shiu-shek, Chow Chan-chiu and his wife, Mrs Chow Chan-ying, Chow Yiu-fung, Ho Chi-yuen, Lin Jan-tung, Lu Chan-ming, Lu Shou-kuen, Pao Shiu-yau, Yung Shou-shek.

SUDHIKAR BHAT

For the third year in succession, members of the Ping Sung Art Club, all of them well-known artists, are showing some of their new work at an Exhibition at St. John's Cathedral Hall for today and tomorrow only.

The artists whose work is on view are Professor Chao Shao-chang, Cheung Shiu-shek, Chow Chan-chiu and his wife, Mrs Chow Chan-ying, Chow Yiu-fung, Ho Chi-yuen, Lin Jan-tung, Lu Chan-ming, Lu Shou-kuen, Pao Shiu-yau, Yung Shou-shek.

Exhibition At Cathedral Hall

For the third year in succession, members of the Ping Sung Art Club, all of them well-known artists, are showing some of their new work at an Exhibition at St. John's Cathedral Hall for today and tomorrow only.

The artists whose work is on view are Professor Chao Shao-chang, Cheung Shiu-shek, Chow Chan-chiu and his wife, Mrs Chow Chan-ying, Chow Yiu-fung, Ho Chi-yuen, Lin Jan-tung, Lu Chan-ming, Lu Shou-kuen, Pao Shiu-yau, Yung Shou-shek.

WAR DEBRIS STILL LITTERS NORTH SEA

London, NEARLY 14 years after the end of the war, the North Sea is still littered with debris.

Fishermen are still finding old mines, depth charges and torpedoes.

During the past year the Lowestoft trawler fleet — the biggest in the North Sea — has hauled up a dozen mines.

Most of the old mines are thought to be harmless. But a few days ago a depth charge caught fire by the crew of the trawler Bonita Pegasus and was fined $100 or one month in

Mr Rudolf Zindel, a director of Arnhold Trading Co. Ltd., of Hongkong, left by Swissair this morning for Europe, on vacation. He is accompanied by Mrs Zindel (second from right) and their daughter, Irene (right). They were seen off at Kai Tak by the Swiss Consul-General, Mr. Georges Bonnart, and Mrs Bonnart (second from left).—Inset photo.

From the Files 25 years AGO

THE beautiful Easter Choral Service from Mendelssohn's Octet "Eliech" was rendered at the Hongkong Union Church yesterday evening. Mr G. E. Longyear acting as organist and choir master. Mrs A. M. Bowes-Smith, Mrs H. L. Lockhart, Mr W. J. T. Phelps and Mr W. H. Bailey were the soloists.

GREAT enthusiasm among the thousands of Buddhists in Hongkong and Canton was created by the arrival in Hongkong of the Sikkim Buddha. A big crowd of Buddhists gathered to meet the "Living Buddha" who holds much political religious influence in Sinciang the newly created province between Tibet and Szechuan.

☆ ☆ ☆

Dreary skies and labouring seas could not dispel the atmosphere of romance and gaiety of the "honeymoon" liner "Resolute" as she steamed in to her berth at Kowloon yesterday morning on her tenth successive world cruise. Of all the great liners that circumvent the seven seas each tourist season, the "Resolute" has made a special reputation for herself as a match-maker and as a result of her annual globe trips, many a wandering bachelor has found a permanent berth.

COMMODORE Frank Elliott, officially handed HMS Cornflower over to the Hongkong Naval Volunteer Reserve. He said the sloop of 1,200 tons built in 1918 had two four-inch guns and had completed 18 years in the Navy.

Her service record included sweeping in the Dardanelles and Black Sea. The Board of Admiralty realising the necessary and valuable work being done by the Hongkong Naval Volunteer Force had obtained Treasury sanction to hand over the ship to the Hongkong Govt. for the use of this force as a headquarters and drill ship.

☆ ☆ ☆

Mrs A. V. Harvey, who returned to the Colony on Saturday, has reported to the police the loss of a string of 100 pearls with a diamond clasp somewhere between the Conna Reservoirs from which she disembarked on her arrival in Po Village, Taipo, on November 15, last year.

Hearing is continuing.

☆ ☆ ☆

This Funny World

"Oh for heaven's sake, pick him up."

Printed and published by Francis Gobow Newland, FRANCIS GOBOW NEWLAND, LTD., for and on behalf of South China Morning Post, Limited, 1 Wyndham Street, City of Victoria, the Colony of Hongkong.

HOAX COST INDIAN $100

Atom Singh, 30, an unemployed Indian, staggered down Shantui Street in the small hours of yesterday morning and reported to a policeman that he had been beaten up and robbed by four Chinese.

Before Mr T. Crookden at Kowloon Court this morning, Singh confessed he had given false information to the Police, and was fined $100 or one month in gaol. He admitted he had neither been beaten up nor robbed.

Just before 2 a.m. on April 6,

Singh was seen staggering down Shanghai Street by Sub-Inspector S. G. Thomas. The policeman questioned Singh who said he had been beaten up and robbed of $20 by four Chinese men.

Singh had 11 previous convictions for similar offences.